NINE BURN TO DEATH IN BUS CRASH!

CONFUSION
ON NAZI
POLICY
By
Westbrook
Pegler

NEW YORK.—There are a couple of points of confusion in the current policy of the Nazis toward the Catholic clergy.

The Nazis accuse certain members of the cloth of vile practices, and quite aside from the truth or falsity of the charge, it would be interesting to know when such practices became offensive to the Nazi morality. True, as Josef Goebbels said in his denunciation of Cardinal Mundelein, there were 60 perverts among the Nazi leaders who were slaughtered in the great purge, but that was not the reason they were put to death.

The 60 degenerate Nazi leaders were killed for political opposition to Adolf Hitler, and among them was Capt. Ernst Roehm, a pioneer in the movement who was Hitler's old comrade and confidante, notwithstanding the fact that for years he had been notorious for his peculiarities both in Germany and in South America.

ROEHM NOT RETICENT

In Berlin, long before his death, Roehm's name was the subject of a ribald jest, and American correspondents who knew him recall that he used to join in the merriment at times, discussing his eccentricities with the enormous joviality of a thoroughly abandoned character.

Roehm was not at all reticent, and he was known for what he was to a considerable portion of the public, so it stands to reason that, with his espionage and, moreover, (See PEGLER, Page 3)

CRASH KILLS
SANTA ANA

A vacation trip to Nebraska and Michigan ended in tragedy today for two Santa Ana couples when Charles Hawthorne, 1032 West Eighth street, was instantly killed and three companions seriously injured.

A tire of the car in which they were riding blew out near Sidney, Neb., this morning, killing Hawthorne and injuring Peter McIntosh, real estate dealer of 1115 North Broadway, so seriously his recovery is doubtful, the Associated Press reported.

Mrs. Mary Hawthorne, mother of Miss Mary Hawthorne and Mrs. Eddie Lane of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Flora M. McIntosh are expected to recover. Hawthorne's body was hurled nearly 50 feet after the car jumped a ditch and fence and overturned.

The party left Santa Ana Tuesday, intending to visit friends in Nebraska and Lansing, Mich.

Baby Sale Void Judge Returns it to Mother

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—A mother's plea for return of the baby daughter she "sold" before birth to her sister-in-law was answered today in a superior court decision.

Mrs. Marian Brown Beard, 20, was granted custody of little daughter Nadeen Gloria, who was taken from a San Jose, hospital soon after her birth by Mrs. Evelyn Browne.

Both women told juvenile officials that they drew up and signed a contract, stipulating that in return for payment of Mrs. Beard's hospital bills of approximately $200 Mrs. Brown was to receive her baby.

"I can't live without my baby now," the mother told Judge Goodwin J. Knight.

While she waited in court, sheriff's deputies served a writ of habeas corpus to obtain the infant at Mrs. Brown's home.

Judge Knight delayed his ruling another half hour, in anticipation Mrs. Brown would follow the deputies to the court. Then he said:

"The mother shall have her child, for the reason that the mother had no legal right to attempt to sell her unborn baby, and the other party was equally in error in attempting to purchase the child. The state of California has some control over its children."

Mrs. Brown, arriving too late to hear the verdict, announced she would fight the case.

GUILTY PLEA ENTERED BY DELOGE

Judge Hayden Suspends
$350 If Violations
Are Stopped

A $500 fine was imposed on Manager Frank DeLoge of the Golden West Citrus association today by Justice of the Peace Dwight Hayden of Tustin for assailing shipping frozen oranges in excess of the state tolerance limit.

Judge Hayden suspended $350 of the fine provided there are no further violations during the ensuing year. DeLoge was to pay the fine this afternoon, following his appearance before the judge for pronouncement of judgment this morning.

Charges against DeLoge were brought by Frank Kraemer, of the state department of agriculture, standardization division, who signed the complaint. DeLoge was charged with unlawfully marketing oranges not free from serious damage from freezing, and in excess of the 15 per cent tolerance limit.

DeLoge pleaded guilty to the charges when he appeared before the justice of the peace yesterday. He pleaded today that it is difficult to keep the fruit exactly near the tolerance limit, and that sometimes there may be a few frozen oranges over the limit.

Judge Hayden, however, maintained that evidence showed that the tolerance limit had been violated consistently, and that the same packing house had been cited in his court once before. Officials of the house had been warned repeatedly this season, when a large percentage of the fruit was damaged, the judge said.

The curtailment of frozen fruit shipments is of utmost importance to the citrus industry, the judge said, and violation of the law is not fair to consumers, to growers or to other packing houses.

Lambert demanded a Smith machine, which Fenelon refused to purchase because he was carrying out the board's new policy.

The appeal will attack particularly the decision that the board of supervisors formerly had jurisdiction over county purchases but lost that power when the office of purchasing agent was created.

MANILA, P. I. (AP)—Word of a shipwreck in which 39 persons were drowned, was brought to Abulug, Cagayan province, today by the master of the sailing ship Cuatro Hermanos.

The captain reported 12 sailors and 27 passengers of the sailing boat Rosario drowned near Dalupri island in the Babuyan group, north of Luzon island, May 11. All were Filipinos or Orientals.

He said the 70-ton craft had all of her sails set when she was overtaken by a sudden torrential rain and strong gales which drove the Cuatro Hermanos aground.

While he watched, the captain said, the Rosario disappeared. The crew and passengers of the Cuatro Hermanos were rescued after five days without food.

WILL APPEAL BUYING CASE

Lambert Still Waiting
For New Typewriter
From Fenelon

An appeal of Superior Judge G. K. Scovel's decision that Purchasing Agent Eugene Fenelon must buy an L. C. Smith typewriter for Auditor W. T. Lambert will be filed this afternoon, it was learned today.

Judge Scovel yesterday afternoon issued a peremptory writ which commands Fenelon to deliver a typewriter and to report at 10 a. m. next Tuesday what action he has taken. The appeal would halt the purchase.

The court controversy developed after the board of supervisors adopted a policy whereby it sought to direct purchase of county supplies. Supervisor N. E. West objected to purchase of an L. C. Smith typewriter, claiming the Fenelon Typewriter company, exclusive agent for this brand, had had more business than other firms.

Lambert demanded a Smith machine, which Fenelon refused to purchase because he was carrying out the board's new policy.

The appeal will attack particularly the decision that the board of supervisors formerly had jurisdiction over county purchases but lost that power when the office of purchasing agent was created.

WILL MERGE WITH LOCAL WELFARE

New Law Provides for Revamping Setup on Relief in State

SRA will die June 30 and be absorbed July 1 by the county welfare department, it was announced today by Senator Harry C. Westover.

Under terms of the Clark bill, assembly measure 1936, there will be a consolidation of SRA and county relief projects throughout the entire state, he said. Primarily an economy measure, the bill provides that all power formerly vested in SRA shall be transferred to a new board of social welfare. The bill implies that the department of social welfare shall do all that the state relief administrator has been doing under terms of the California unemployment relief act of 1935 and subsequent measures.

Snow In Charge

Locally this will mean that County Welfare Director Jack Snow will take over all of SRA's duties on July 1, according to Westover. Mrs. Katherine Handley's SRA office will go out of official existence, but its work will go on under Snow's supervision, the senator explained.

Officially Mrs. Handley has received no information about the new set-up. Snow indicated there would be no question of constitutionality of the new measure because he thinks Governor Merriam can do what he wishes about relief in the state under the terms of existing measures.

Another relief bill, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, has been passed by the assembly and senate, and needs only the governor's signature to become law. Senator Westover believes that Governor Merriam will sign this bill soon.

Social Welfare Board

The bill provides that the governor shall appoint a state board of social welfare, composed of seven men, and that this board shall in turn appoint a state director of social welfare, to act under orders of the board.

This bill, if signed, will take over the state relief set-up under terms of the Clark bill that will go into effect July 1, and will mean that the board will have power to spend more than $70,000,000 over a two-year period.

This will include $48,000,000 of unemployment relief already approved by the legislature, and all old age and indigent relief that will come to the state. This will raise the total to near $70,000,000, Westover indicated.

AMELIA STARTS ON FOURTH LEG

PARAMARIBO, Dutch Guiana. (AP)—Amelia Earhart took off from here at 5:10 a. m. today on the fourth leg of her round-the-world flight.

Pan-American Airways, over whose route she has been flying since leaving Miami, Fla., reported that Miss Earhart was headed for Belem, in Brazil, at the mouth of the Amazon river, a distance of about 820 miles from here.

A chancery official disclosed the immature conspiracy last night and said nine persons of Nazi sentiments had been arrested.

Nazis Execute U. S. Citizen!

BERLIN. (AP)—Helmuth Hirsch, 21-year-old Jewish citizen of the United States who has never been in America, was executed by a mechanical guillotine at dawn today for an alleged treasonable plot under the explosives law.

It was learned on good authority that the charges, hitherto presumed to have been based on an alleged plan to kill Adolf Hitler, instead were connected with accusations that Hirsch wanted to assassinate Julius Streicher, high Hitler aide and the reich's leading Jew-hater.

Clemency apparently was refused by Der Fuehrer—the only one able to give it—because authorities believed Hirsch acted for Otto Strasser, Hitler's bitter enemy, who now is in exile in Prague, Czechoslovakia, the youth's home.

Execution occurred in Ploetzensee prison despite four clemency appeals by United States Ambassador William E. Dodd.

This Ought to Inspire Goldberg To Draw Cartoon

W. M. Crane, 602 South Cypress street, crossed South Main street yesterday and indirectly caused all sorts of trouble.

A car swung out to avoid Crane, who was walking in the middle of the street, police reported. The car struck a metal flag holder marking a newly-painted white line. The flag holder flew through the air and landed back into the street.

A truck driven by George E. Brown ran over the flag holder and punctured a tire. Crane reached the other side of the street unhurt.

COMPROMISE AGREEABLE TO F.D.R.

Says Administration
Might Accept Court
Bill Changes

WASHINGTON. (AP)—President Roosevelt said today there was no question that the court reorganization bill would be passed this session. He made the statement at his press conference, at the same time parrying questions about a compromise.

The President, however, when he said Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, had given a correct statement last night to newspapersmen, said the administration might accept some compromise proposal.

(Robinson said certain amendments would be offered to the bill when it came up on the floor and that he may offer one himself.)

The President said the American people wanted court reform. He complained that while the supreme court was entitled to a recess, it had adjourned for the summer without deciding several important cases in which the administration was vitally interested.

Speaking in metaphor, the President said, with regard to the proposal to enlarge the supreme court unless older justices retire, that the country in recent weeks had seen a forest while a lot of people in Washington were likely to see trees instead of a forest.

His forest remark was understood by his hearers to have reference to court reform generally; the trees relating to the number of new judges needed.

After Senator Robinson said last night that amendments would be offered to the court reorganization measure, Senator Burke (D., Neb.), an opponent of the legislation, commented:

"We will be here until the end of time before such a bill will ever pass."

Assassination Plot Is Nipped

VIENNA. (AP)—Nine persons were under arrest today, charged with a fantastic plot to assassinate Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg and bomb the chancellery from the air.

A chancery official disclosed the immature conspiracy last night and said nine persons of Nazi sentiments had been arrested.

Machine Hits Bank and
Overturns 48 Miles
North of Redding

REDDING. (AP)—Trapped in a flaming wreckage, nine persons were burned to death when a Greyhound bus overturned and burst into flames early today. The cause of the accident was not known.

The accident occurred near Shiloh Springs, 48 miles north of here. The bus was en route from Sacramento to Portland, Ore.

The driver, Mortimer A. Wilson, 37, of Sacramento, and eight unidentified passengers were trapped in the wreckage, including women and one child.

Heat Prevents Rescue

The blaze, lighting up the sky, attracted members of a nearby CCC camp. The men rushed to the spot and hurred water on the flames, but the heat was so intense they were unable to rescue the screaming victims.

Policeman F. L. Speck of Los Angeles, on a vacation, said he arrived at the scene at 4:15 a. m., shortly after the accident.

He said other spectators told him the bus was traveling along a straight stretch of highway, after rounding a curve, when it suddenly swerved and ran up a bank.

Topples Back, Burns

Then, Speck said he was told, the big machine toppled back onto the center of the road and caught fire.

Speck said he and other spectators were unable to reach the victims, who could be seen amidst the flames.

Six of the passengers boarded the bus when it left Sacramento at 9 o'clock last night, and two were picked up en route later.

Greyhound officials, A. B. Freyhaug, Sacramento manager, and Earl Hensley, claims agent, and R. M. Ahrens, superintendent of maintenance of San Francisco, started an investigation.

STRIKES HALT AUTO PLANTS

By the Associated Press

Sit-downs returned to the automobile industry today boosting the nation's strike tide to near the 100,000 mark.

Tentative peace moves in the steel walkout, with an estimated 73,000 out, proceeded, but strikers and sympathizers barricaded a freight train, bound for a Republic steel plant in Warren, Ohio, and halted a postal ruling there refusing delivery for cartons of food addressed to men still working in the plant.

Five big automotive units in Michigan were closed by sit-downs which threw 17,000 out of work. Companies affected were Chrysler, two units, Packard, De Soto and Fisher.

At Detroit, Personnel Director Harry H. Bennett of the Ford Motor company, notified authorities he would appear Monday before a one-man grand jury investigating a riot outside the Rouge plant when a union organization campaign got under way last week.

WELL, I'LL TELL YOU—
BY BOB BURNS

You can't help admiring a man who has such a strong character that his habits and personality remains the same no matter what conditions he's livin' under. Uncle Unie's strongest characteristic was his laziness. He had the poorest farm in Crawford county because he never would work it.

Finally when they found oil on his land and Uncle Unie came into a lotta money, the people thought "Well, now at least he oughta spruce up a little bit and show more signs of life." But he didn't do it—he continued to sit around the house day after day.

Even when they moved to the city and Aunt Boo became a social climber, he wouldn't get out of the house. One day she told him that he just had to get a pet to take out on a leash like the other gentlemen did. She says "It not only looks stylish but the exercise will do you good." Uncle Unie says "Well when you go to town today, stop in the Pet Shop and pick me up a turtle!"

SANTA ANA'S BUILDING TOTAL PASSES $600,000 MARK TODAY

NEW LAUNDRY STRUCTURE STARTED

Yesterday was a busy day for Santa Ana contractors and roofing companies. Together they took out 13 building permits, boosting June's building total already to $12,274.

Included in construction authorized yesterday in permits issued by Inspector Harold Rasmussen's office was $5000 addition to the Arrow Laundry at 616 East Sixth street, to be built by the Willard Brent company, and a $1000 model home for demonstration purposes at the Santa Ana Lumber company.

Yesterday's permits also lifted 1937's building permits over the $600,000 mark. The total to date is $603,239, an average of more than $100,000 a month.

The Arrow building, to be 50 by 65 feet, will contain marking, counting and distributing departments, with new machinery to be installed in the present building in space vacated by the moving of other departments. Construction, already begun, will be completed by June 20.

Driver Without License Sentenced

Jack Jeffs, who admitted that when he was involved in a fatal accident at Dana Point March 7 he was driving with his license suspended, was sentenced to six months in jail today.

Superior Judge James L. Allen denied probation. Jeffs' mother, Mrs. Anna Jeffs, died two days after the accident as the result of injuries. Jeffs admitted that after his license had been suspended he secured another under an assumed name.

MUSICAL GROUP ENDS SEASON

A comparatively small but most appreciative audience attended last night's final presentation of the season by the Santa Ana Symphony orchestra, conducted by Elwood Bear.

Outstanding on the program of lighter classical numbers was a dance group played with such brilliance that each of its parts, the "Gypsy Dance" from Carmen, and the "Three Dances" from "Henry the Eighth," including a Morris dance, a pastoral dance, and a torch dance, presented distinct and vivid mind-pictures.

Marion Graf, charming Anaheim soloist and operatic singer, was delightful as guest artist in her several songs.

The Rimski-Korsakov "Scheherazade Suite" as played by the orchestra was greatly appreciated, as was a Fritz Hoffman arrangement of some of the better-known airs from "Carmen."

Defendant Free On Old Charge

Because the charge against him was four years old and outlived, Pedro Ramirez, 29, Redondo Beach, was free of assault and battery charges today.

Ramirez, arrested by immigration authorities at San Pedro, was returned to the county jail yesterday by Deputy Sheriff R. E. Steinberger and James Musick, Deputy District Attorney Clarence Sprague's dismissal motion was granted this morning by Justice Kenneth Morrison.

COUNTY GETS BIG RELIEF DONATION

Orange county already has received $195,743 this year in state and federal reimbursements for aid extended in old age security and blind aid, Welfare Director Jack W. Snow reported today.

He said checks totaling $16,202 were received during May.

Under present law the county advances all costs and is reimbursed monthly by the federal government, and semi-annually by the state government, but emergency legislation awaiting the governor's signature would make it possible for funds to be advanced to the county a quarter in advance.

Snow said he did not know whether the bill will be signed in time to become effective during the next quarter.

Reimbursements so far claimed by the county this year are for $26,116.69 from the federal government, $38,552.82 from the state and $10,733.54 from miscellaneous sources, such as the repayment by clients for relief advanced.

Scouts' Summer Camp Popular

Prospects for a completely filled summer camp look good. Boy Scout Executive Harrison White said today. Camp Rokill opens June 21 with an unusually fine staff, he added.

Use of Camp Irvine since the first of the year has been heavy, the attendance running about 100 each week, including all groups, according to White.

Camp plans will be discussed at a meeting of the executive board at 7 p. m. Monday, White announced.

GAUGE MISSING

Theft of nine hens and a rooster, two bed sheets and a shower curtain from the Lawrence Barker ranch, route 2, Anaheim, was being investigated today by sheriff's officers. The theft occurred Wednesday night, Barker said.

REBEL SPAIN MOURNING GEN. MOLA

By The Associated Press

The bells of insurgent Spain tolled requiem today for Gen. Emilio Mola.

Elbano, besieged for eight weeks by the forces of the fallen northern commander, hoped for a breathing spell.

Shattered in the crash of a fog-bound plane yesterday, the body of Gen. Mola lay in state in a military hospital in Burgos. In the green village of North Stoneham in England, Basque refugee children, believing the end of Mola meant the end of the war, cheered.

In Moscow, the Third Communist International put aside its long and bitter fight with the Second Socialist International and proposed a united front for "action against German and Italian intervention in Spain."

This move, said Secretary General George Dimitroff of the komintern, was due directly to the recent German bombardment of Spanish government-held Almeria, which the Spanish government today protested to the international non-intervention committee.

France, annoyed by the recent machine-gunning of the border town of Cerbere by an insurgent plane, strung batteries of anti-aircraft guns along the Spanish frontier.

Farm Group Silent On Water Plan

Although they spent more than an hour yesterday talking over the flood control bond election, farm bureau directors still were silent today. They decided to say nothing until the board of supervisors calls the election.

They did put their okeh stamp, however, on the fight of the state farm bureau federation's law and utility department to establish the rights of cooperatives to haul products for their members. A Santa Barbara case is being fought by the federation.

last year. Most houses are paying transportation costs for the workers and are supplying clipper and bags now, he said.

"Our affiliation with the American Federation of Labor," Calvera said, "shows that we do not have nor intend to have any connection of any kind with any communistic groups or parties who do not obey the law. Our activities in the future will depend upon what working conditions prevail for the workers. We do not intend to have any difficulty if we can help it. We hope to have contacts with the managers of packing houses, and if unjustified acts are done, to adjust the difficulty in a friendly manner."

Lucas Lucio, inspector and organizer for the Mexican Honorary commission in Orange county, made the following statement:

Strike Recalled

"My part in the citrus strike of last year was due to instructions from Consul Ricardo Hill. His orders were that until the time some responsible American organization would take a stand for the protection of rights of the Mexicans, he would see that steps were taken to protect them. Naturally, I carried out the orders. Now that the boys have Mexican Honorary commission in Orange county, made the following statement:

The executive committee to which the union charter was issued includes Jesus Caldera, Pedro Mena, Francisco Armendariz, Santa Maria Martinez, Pablo Alcantar, Polinario Sanchez, Alfonso Martinez, Jose Marie Ortiz, Andres Clemente and Emilio Martinez.

It is signed by President William Green of the A. F. of L., 15 vice presidents and the secretary-treasurer.

Death Delays Tabor Sentence

Twin specters of death strode through superior court here today and brought another delay in the probation hearing of Edward R. Tabor, convicted arsonist.

Superior Judge G. K. Scovel, before whom Tabor was to have appeared for a probation hearing, was notified this morning of the death of his father, B. L. Scovel, in Gresham, Neb., and left for that city.

Tabor last night suffered a nearly fatal stroke of apoplexy, it was reported, and appeared at the courthouse this morning in weakened condition. Presiding Superior Judge Ames held a special court session in the supervisors' chambers to grant a continuance until June 18. The hearing was held in the chambers so that Tabor would not have to climb the courthouse stairs.

Alaskan Huskies At Empire Market

Scotty Allen and his famous team of Alaskan huskies will visit the Empire Market at Second and Broadway tomorrow, it was announced today by Robert Vidal of Empire grocery.

Allen and his famous dogs will be at the Empire nearly all day tomorrow, and Vidal invited all residents of this area, especially the children, to come and see the dogs, which will be there with their sled on which they have carried serum and supplies in Alaska during emergencies.

In honor of the event, Vidal said, the market will feature Scotty Allen's dog food at special prices tomorrow.

DeMolay Honors Rev. Harry Owings

Recognition of his work among them for many years and of his example to them as a community leader was conferred by Santa Ana De Molays upon the Rev. Harry Evan Owings of the First Baptist church last night at their installation ceremonies in the Masonic temple.

The token of their gratitude was a medal of appreciation, the 22nd presented in the United States, and was conferred upon the local minister by the grand council of the Order of De Molay in Kansas City. It is the highest honor that can be given by the order to anyone who has never been a De Molay.

MARKET MILK AREA HERE APPROVED

Milk prices to be paid producers by distributors in Orange county, effective June 15, will be 49 cents per pound for milk fat contained in class one milk delivered at distributor's plants.

The new price, the same as now effective in the Los Angeles marketing area, was set by A. A. Brock, state director of agriculture, acting under provisions of the Young milk control act.

Last week Brock was in Orange county to conduct a public hearing on designation of Orange county as a milk marketing area. No objections to the plan were voiced at the hearing.

The program calls for a stabilization and marketing plan for fluid milk sold by producers to distributors supplying the marketing area. Brock called the hearing following presentation to him of petitions from producers who produce more than 65 per cent of the fluid milk sold within the area.

C. H. Christie, secretary of the Orange County Milk Producers' association, said the new program would not result in increase of milk prices to consumers.

Await Overture In Sewer Fight

Mayor Fred C. Rowland reported this morning that he has not yet received the official counterproposal for repairs of the county joint outfall sewer.

He said the council will not consider the plan or make arrangements for a joint meeting of city council and sanitary boards until the meeting of the Santa Ana city council next Monday night.

VALENCIA ORANGE PRORATE TO CONTINUE ON VOLUNTARY BASIS

ALLOTMENTS FOR COMING WEEK SET

Rise in Prices Makes Regulation By Law Impossible

Proration of California Valencia oranges will continue on a voluntary basis, even though Secretary of Agriculture Wallace may deem it necessary to suspend issuance of weekly allotments under the federal order due to the shooter crop and higher prices resulting from the freeze last January. This was announced today following a joint meeting of the distribution and growers advisory committees of the California-Arizona Orange Grapefruit agency.

This action was unanimous, the committees saying it was taken for the protection of both producers and consumers. Prorates were set for next week as usual and were submitted to Washington for approval.

Maintain Records

The committees also voted unanimously to continue their other functions of estimating crops and maintaining records of shipments and to continue the usual assessments for this purpose. Government representatives present at the meeting approved this action and said enforcement of the balance of the program would be continued as heretofore.

The committees decided to reduce expenses for the balance of this season consistent with maintenance of the organization and its records, anticipating resumption of the regular proration plan with the beginning of the new season next fall.

Above Parity

The declared purpose of the agricultural marketing act is to secure parity of purchasing power for agricultural producers. The secretary has indicated from Washington that he is not permitted to continue and enforce regulation of shipments because, according to the government's interpretation, the price on California Valencia oranges has risen above parity.

From the growers' viewpoint, the committees recognize that in many instances the higher prices do not offset the additional expense of heating the groves and segregating the damaged fruit in the packing houses.

Experience has proven the value of regulated shipments, even though there is no surplus, not only to enhance the return to producers but to stabilize the market, thus maintaining trade confidence and insuring essential supplies for consumers throughout the season.

Picnic For United Presbyterians

Students of the United Presbyterian church Bible school will hold their annual picnic tomorrow in Irvine park, it was announced today by Dr. G. Emmett Raitt, publicity chairman for the event.

The picnic will be in charge of John A. Henderson, superintendent of the school, as general chairman. The bus will leave the Edison school at 10 a. m. and the church at 10:15 a. m., returning from the park at 4:30 p. m. T. Gray Johnson is arranging the transportation.

Lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. Basket lunches, brought by the students, will be turned over to a committee headed by Mrs. T. L. Warren for distribution. The afternoon recreation program will include a horseshoe tournament and other contests under direction of R. Carson Smith.

Theft of two heaters from a garage over last week-end was reported by Mrs. C. Gilmore, 830 North Baker street. The garage was left unlocked, she said.

J. S. Graves, 915 West Pine street, called police yesterday afternoon, reporting that a woman and a boy in a black sedan threw a rock through his window. Officers inspected the street in front of the Graves home, saw a number of similar rocks, and concluded the stone must have been "thrown" by the tire of the passing car.

HEAR TALKS ON CALIFORNIA

With "What Santa Ana Most Needs" as a table topic, members of El Camino Toastmasters club expressed opinions including a new junior college, a city park, an improved civic spirit, and a change in form of government as chief needs, at their dinner meeting last night at Daniger's.

The general subject for the evening was "California," speakers having been assigned sub-topics by the toastmaster of the evening, Ernest S. Wooster.

The size, purposes and location of the All-American canal now under construction were handled by T. D. (Ted) MacBird, secretary of the club, who gave figures illustrating the hugeness of the enterprise.

Malcolm Maccurda, who was awarded first place in the voting for speakers, gave something of the history of the builder of the Golden Gate bridge, also adding much concerning its size and the peculiar engineering problems which had to be met and the manner in which they were solved.

The Metropolitan aqueduct was described by Ralph Raitt, who was given second place. Hubert Gohres, voted third on his topic, "Twenty-five Miles to the Moon," said that the telescope to be mounted on Palomar mountain is a ten million-dollar enterprise, telling something of the problems of building, transporting, mounting and use of it.

A. O. Hatfield gave figures on the importance of California agriculture. Critics were Phil Hood, Dr. C. J. Ruley, Robert Farrar, Glenn Wooley and Glenn Tidball, with Dr. Merrill W. Hollingsworth as general critic.

MORE BY PEGLER

with his intimate, personal association with his old comrade, Der Fuehrer must have tolerated his depravity for a long time before Roshin's political ambition marked him for liquidation, as the nice term goes.

Then, too, the fact that there were 60 such characters among the early leaders of the movement, as Mr. Goebbels says, indicates that degeneracy was rather common in the pioneer element, which was small in numbers at the beginning. And the fact that the 60 perverts were destroyed, though perhaps laudable, does not prove that all degenerates in the higher brackets of the regime were wiped out.

THE LUDENDORFF CASE.

Inasmuch as political opposition and conspiracy was the offense, there exists a temptation to suppose that other low characters who were politically correct and loyal have been allowed to pursue their careers.

Another point is that raised by the wife of Gen. Eric Ludendorff, the old soldier, who is opposed to the worship of any international god, and demands that the Germans create an exclusive, national god of their own or dust off the old pagan deities and use them, knowing that nobody else on earth would be tempted to muscle in.

The general's wife, who is a physician, is reported to have given her scientific opinion that the celibacy of the Catholic clergy is morally injurious, tending to create conditions such as those alleged against certain Catholic clergymen.

HITLER CELIBATE

If that is his scientific opinion, far be it from a layman to dispute her, but one naturally wonders how the good lady will go about squaring herself with the regime considering that Herr Hitler is himself a celibate. This phase of the leader's existence has always been rather puzzling, inasmuch as he has imposed economic penalties on other bachelors, and has promoted the league of those who are rich in children.

Being something of a god himself, and a national treasurer, it would seem incumbent on Der Fuehrer to reproduce himself rather numerously, as Mussolini has done, and unpatriotic of him to provide this legacy for the land of his adoption, although, to be sure, there are those, addicted to the worship of other deities who thank God there is only one Hitler.

These are just a couple of little problems which have troubled one who tries to follow the Nazi reasoning, and dislikes to give annoyance. The difficulty is that when one fails to understand any point in the Nazi philosophy or procedure, the Nazis lose their temper. Up to now they have lost their tempers with the Jews, Catholics, Protestants and Masons, and from the way things are going from day to day, it appears that very soon the whole civilized world again will be out of step with Germany.

Patty Wild yesterday started suit in superior court here against Jesse W. Heinicke as trustee for Barbara Jean Heinicke, five years of age, to quiet title to two lots in San Clemente.

Pleads Insanity In Check Case

Edmund Gralewski, Santa Ana electrical dealer, today declared himself insane in pleading not guilty before Superior Judge James L. Allen on a fictitious check charge.

Gralewski, who was arrested in Chicago on information supplied by the local sheriff's office, was represented in court today by Morris Cain, attorney who two days ago filed a divorce complaint on behalf of Gralewski's wife.

The case was transferred to Presiding Superior Judge H. G. Ames to set a date for trial. Gralewski is accused of issuing a fictitious $500 check to John S. McCarthy, auto finance man.

By MRS. ROBBIN COONS
(Guest Columnist for Husband)
HOLLYWOOD. — A Hollywood correspondent's wife can paraphrase Milton: "They also serve who only stand—and answer the telephone."

Hollywood correspondents are nomads by the day. So the home telephone becomes the ventral clearing house for more than half the calls. It's a maliciously psychic thing, and seems to know when I am in the tub, or trying to deal in approved nursery school manner with my almost 3-year-old who is covering his toy animals for their "naps" instead of undressing for his own.

Press Agents Hound 'Em
Quite often, I'm afraid, I don't manage that "cheery hello" the telephone company advertises, although I try. I know I'm no good at it when the calling party uses that established Hollywood custom of having his secretary get you on the line and then keeps you there until he decides to pick up the instrument.

That was the telephone then. It went like this:

"No, he isn't in. This is Mrs. Coons; may I take a message? No, I don't know where he is at the moment. He said he was going to the office first, then to Paramount, and later he had a date with Pat O'Brien. You've tried the office? Let me see—why not try Paramount? . . . Oh, no trouble at all. Goodbye . . ."

That was a press agent. I have a very good telephone acquaintance with that particular one. I know very well that it was not important, as she said. She has a new client, some hanger-on in pictures probably, and she will pursue my poor husband by telephone until she hears from him, always politely, that he is not interested.

My "secretarial duties" include playing alarm clock after middle-of-the-night calls from the news office.

WORLD TOUR PLANNED BY STAGE STAR

Katharine Cornell Will Take Her Company to Many Countries

CHICAGO, (AP)—Unless present plans are averted, Katharine Cornell will be the first American stage star to make a theatrical "good will" tour of the world.

The celebrated actress, winding up a profitable Chicago engagement of "The Wingless Victory" and "Candida" this week, said the trip, part of her tentative program for 1938, would require virtually two years.

Miss Cornell expects to take her company to the principal cities of Europe, to Australia and South Africa and, doubtless, to some Oriental and Tropical ports.

STATE SHOWING NEW WESTERN

Telling the story of a cowboy who sets out to prove the innocence of a younger brother unjustly accused of murder, "Sandflow," latest of the Buck Jones westerns, opens tonight at the State theater for an engagement of two days.

Buck's task gathers difficulty when he learns his brother is shielding a girl, and a money-grubbing scoundrel tries to betray the brother for the reward.

Lita Chevret is Buck's leading lady, while others in the cast include Bob Kortman, Arthur Aylsworth, Robert Terry and Enrique de Rosas.

To round out the program the theater is presenting a Patsy Kelly comedy, "Asea Ashore," a popeye cartoon, "Spanish Roadster," chapter No. 5 of "Flash Gordon" and a news reel.

Givot-Curtis Nuptials Held

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—George Givot, radio and film comedian, honeymooned with his bride, actress Maryon Dorothy Curtis, today.

They were married Wednesday night at the Little Church of the Flowers. After Givot finishes his role in a current picture, they will journey to San Francisco and Seattle.

I turned on the light, shook him. "What—ush—what?" He stared at me indignantly.

"The telephone! What was it?" "Oh," he was turning over again now, "somebody eloped!" Jean Harlow . . . Silly time to elope!

I shook him violently. "Listen! JEAN HARLOW ELOPED!" "What?" He was astonished! "Great grief! Quick, my clothes. Call the office back, will ya? Great grief!"

Finishes First Leg of Long Trip Home in 'Iron Lung'

NANKING, China, (AP)—Partially paralyzed Frederick B. Snite, jr., 26, yesterday completed the first leg of his 12,000-mile journey in an "iron lung" to his Chicago home.

Imprisoned in the artificial respirator, young Snite arrived from Peiping where he spent 14 months undergoing treatment for the results of infantile paralysis with

Lathrop Junior High News

Complimenting the principals and sixth grade teachers of those students who will be coming to Lathrop next fall, members of the Lathrop faculty entertained with a tea on Wednesday, June 2. A long table in the rotunda of the main building was decorated with spring flowers. Dainty sandwiches and cakes were served by girls of the foods classes.

Several musical selections were played by members of the Lathrop orchestra, who were seated in the balcony overlooking the rotunda.

Whisper Snapper, a play by Miss Cornell's drama club, will be presented on the evening of Tuesday, June 8, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Ninth grade students are sponsoring the ticket sale and hope to have a large crowd. Proceeds will be used by the Drama club for a gift to the school from the ninth grade. The play, a romantic comedy, deals with modern problems concerning a minister, two millionaire's sons, and their families. The minister, Richard Morgan, will be played by Bill Was. Mary Van Engen takes the part of the mother, Richard Watson is Jerry Trevelman; Dudley Grant is played by Douglas May. Wade Trevelman is played by Clifford Whitford; George Logan takes the part of Foster Lee; Donovan Rowe plays Zoe Stafford, Irma Jean May-Barbara Lee. Kenneth Anderson is Smiley, Leon Smith plays Doctor Gerard, Mary Alice Tillotson plays Elizabeth and Ruth Hawley takes the part of Josephine Stafford.

OFFICERS PLAN INSURANCE

Discussion of peace officers' group insurance featured Wednesday night's session of the Orange County Peace Officers association at Swanson's cafe on North Main street, following a dinner attended by some 30 officers from all parts of the county.

Individual policies for each officer amount now to $500, having been cut down from $1000 during the depression. Discussion now is on raising the amount once more. No action was taken.

Next month's meeting will be held at the Izaak Walton clubhouse, Fullerton, on July 7.

To Ask Bids on Phone Franchise

Supervisors will open bids July 13 for a telephone franchise in Silverado, Black Star and Santiago canyons, it was announced today.

County Clerk J. M. Backs today set the date in issuing formal notice. Only one bid is expected—that of C. H. Gilbert of the Silverado Telephone company, who needs a franchise in order to meet state railroad commission regulations.

Gilbert has been operating the private telephone service in the canyon, where other telephone service cannot be obtained.

Retired Officer Kills Wife, Self

SEATTLE, (AP)—Mrs. Gertrude Folrich was killed and Hiram W. Folrich, 52, former policeman, was critically wounded in a shooting at their beach home here yesterday. Detective Lieut. Ernest Winter said Folrich shot his wife as she lay asleep, then shot himself through the mouth.

Folrich was retired as a patrolman in 1921, for disability resulting from bullet wounds inflicted by a burglar suspect. He was cited for bravery.

BROADWAY BILL ENDS TONIGHT

Probably the most interesting part of the program which closes tonight at the Broadway theater is the two-reel picture entitled "A Day with the Dionne Quintuplets."

This unusual featurette shows the famous and lovely young ladies of Canada in intimate scenes, taken in their nursery and home. The picture shows how they spend the average day, as well as many of their cute pranks.

One of the features on the double bill ending tonight, is "Wings Over Honolulu," featuring Wendy Barrie and Ray Milland in a dramatic romance. Navy fighting planes, the languor and romance of the tropics, intrigue and near-tragedy feature the photography, which concerns a young naval officer's wife who nearly ruins his career because of her ignorance of navy conventions and taboos.

Second film on the program is the comedy riot, "That Man's Here Again," starring the popular funster, Hugh Herbert, who plays the part of a rich but eccentric art collector who gets everything all mixed up in his attempts to play Cupid in the romance of an elevator boy and a housemaid.

PLACE EX-FILM STAR IN HOME

NEW YORK, (AP)—Mary Nolan, one-time glamorous star of the "Follies" and the screen, was a patient today in the Brunswick Home, in Amityville, L. I., where attendants said she was "a very sick girl."

The nature of her illness was not disclosed at the home where Miss Nolan was sent Wednesday by the Actors' Fund of America.

Misfortune has followed the blonde actress, ever since Frank Tinney, a musical comedy star, was accused 12 years ago of beating her so badly she was taken to a hospital.

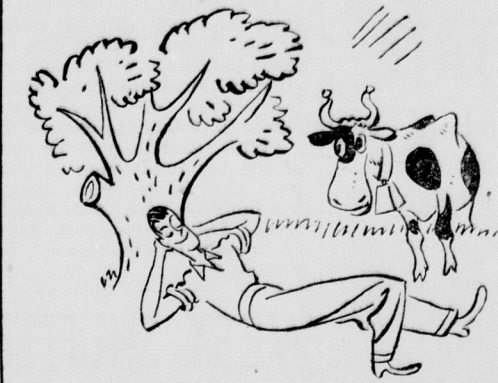

At that time she was Imogene Wilson in a Ziegfeld chorus.

I COVER the SENATE

By SEN. HARRY WESTOVER

The legislature came to a turbulent conclusion last Sunday at 4 a. m. The clock had been stopped at 4:30 Friday afternoon and in the late hours of the night Saturday, one of the pages was heard to remark, "Gee, but this has been a long day." All day stopped for the attaches Friday, so work Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday morning was on the "free list."

For the first time in the history of the legislature, the assembly was ready to adjourn before the senate. One of the reasons of the delay in the senate was the fact that many of the senate bills had been amended in the assembly and had to come back for concurrence by the senate.

One of the big issues at this session of the legislature was that of oil. It commenced during the first week in January and was the last issue disposed of at adjournment. The adjournment was held up for more than an hour because of a conference between the assembly and senate committee over terms of the Wilmington oil bill. After the report had been prepared by the committee it had to be taken to both houses for approval. The senate speedily approved the report of the committee and adjourned sine die. However, some of the members of the assembly, irrespective of the fact that it was four o'clock Sunday morning and that the assembly had been in session continuously since Saturday night, still wanted to talk and when the members of the senate wearily took their way down the hall and out of the capitol building, the voice of Assemblyman Seth Millington could still be heard haranguing the members of the assembly.

All members of the legislature were glad to adjourn, as the session had been unduly long and the members had become irritable and tired.

Much complaint was expressed by both Democrats and Republicans in the assembly concerning the speakership. Although it was anticipated at the beginning of the session that the speaker, Mosley Jones, would be one of the outstanding speakers in the history of the legislature, nevertheless, his actions did not carry out such predictions. Speaker Jones cannot be classed with the great speakers who have presided over the assembly. Information which the writer obtained during the session of the legislature disclosed that during the history of the legislature of California there have been three outstanding speakers. Edgar C. Levey of San Francisco, Governor Frank Merriam of Long Beach and Ted Craig of Brea are recorded, by those who have been familiar with capitol history for many years, to be the most successful speakers who have presided in the assembly. Ted Craig is spoken of with high record and he was liked by all factions. Ted gave up his position in the assembly and the speakership in order to become a member of the third house.

Examination of legislation, which was formerly passed by the legislature, will disclose how strong the third house is at Sacramento. Paid professional lobbyists, through years of experience and contact, are able to guide the course of legislation. They have great influence and control. Some of the special interests came away from the fifty-second session of the legislature with nearly 100 per cent batting average. Some of the special interests, because of poor leadership, did not fare so well.

During the past five months I have been trying to give to the readers of this column an unbiased report of some of the things which happen in Sacramento and which are not found in the newspapers. Much of the real news of the legislature is never published and only those who attend a session of the legislature and who are on the inside, know what makes and un-makes laws.

The record in Sacramento, by legislators, is not made by the way one talks but by the way he votes. An examination of the senate and assembly journals will give more indication as to the standing of representatives than idle or boastful statements. In the assembly Orange county was well represented.

I cannot close this series of articles without expressing my thanks and appreciation to the newspapers which have so kindly published them. Some of the papers have been generous with their space. To all the papers who have used these articles, in whole or in part, I wish to extend my sincere appreciation.

Griego Guilty in Switch Case Here

R. M. Griego, former railroad employe accused of opening a switch here and then running to a trainman to report it in hope of reward, today stood convicted of tampering with railway equipment. A Santa Ana justice court jury Wednesday night found him guilty of the charge, a misdemeanor, after eight and a half hours of deliberation. Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow morning. Griego's attorney, W. Maxwell Burke, contended it was not shown the defendant had been near the switch, which was closed by employes just before a southbound freight train passed through, two weeks ago. Deputy District Attorney Clarence Sprague prosecuted.

One of the earliest United States patents was granted to John Moon in 1825 on a corn sheller.

U. S. SECURITY CARDS USED BY STATE

Federal Members Will Keep Californians' Records Straight

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Social security account numbers issued under the federal old age benefit system will be used to keep workers' records under the state unemployment compensation laws, Regional Director Richard M. Neustadt, of the social security board, announced.

Neustadt said the social security board had made arrangements with the state unemployment compensation commissions of California, Oregon, Washington and Nevada for such use of federal account numbers.

"These arrangements will facilitate the administration of unemployment compensation," Neustadt explained, "and will assist in the identification of workers who, if eligible, will be entitled to unemployment compensation benefits if they become involuntarily unemployed after benefits become payable."

He said eligible workers in California and Oregon would be entitled to benefits after Jan. 1, 1938, in Washington and Nevada, which passed compensation laws this year. Benefits will be paid after Jan. 1, 1939.

ADULT GROUP GRADUATES

More than 150 people gathered Wednesday night to honor the graduates of Santa Ana Evening High schools at their commencement exercises held at Willard Junior High school.

The graduates were Frederick Harold Dawson, Helen M. Johnson, Peter Leo Cavanagh and Ned B. Smith from Lathrop Evening High school; Elva Parson Crawford, Isabel Bennett Fink, Harry I. Fink, Joan Brade Schackenberg and Martha M. Sedlinger from Willard Evening High school.

Honor guests were Superintendent and Mrs. Frank A. Henderson. Superior Judge H. G. Ames spoke to members of the naturalization class that will come up before him in two weeks.

The program demonstrated the types of work stressed in the adult education department. A play, "Helping Hands," was given as part of the program. Selections were played by the string quartet of the Symphony orchestra. A brass sextet also played several numbers.

L. A. County Begins Rabid Dog Drive

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Los Angeles county authorities planned today to augment the drive against rabid dogs.

Eight trucks will be used to round up all stray dogs, whether infected or not. Twelve deputies will be empowered to license dogs and collect fees.

Dr. John L. Pomeroy, county health officer, said 900 persons have been bitten by rabid dogs since Jan. 1, compared to 347 in the same period last year. It is estimated there are 43,000 unlicensed dogs.

During the past five months I have been trying to give to the readers of this column an unbiased report of some of the things which happen in Sacramento and which are not found in the newspapers. Much of the real news of the legislature is never published and only those who attend a session of the legislature and who are on the inside, know what makes and un-makes laws.

L. A. Police Plan To Be Friendly To All Tourists

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Out-of-state motorists will be greeted by Los Angeles' 400 traffic and speed patrolmen with smiles and friendly waves of the hand if instructions of Police Chief James E. Davis are carried out. "With more than 50 per cent of the tax fund going to charity," said Davis, "Los Angeles has immense need of outside income. Let's make our handling of tourists kindly, tolerant and friendly."

WEST SHUFFLES QUIZ PAPERS

Supervisors N. E. West and John Mitchell were playing solitaire yesterday behind locked doors in the supervisors' committee room at the courthouse.

With Phil Hood, road department bookkeeper aiding with statistical work, the two supervisors started sorting questionnaires that have been filled out by courthouse workers as a basis for a new salary schedule.

The task, it was learned, was to segregate the various workers according to the kind of work done and the amount of responsibility. Mitchell reported that salaries in lower brackets are likely to be raised, but that salaries in some instances may be lowered.

LIMIT FOR PAIR IN MATRICIDE

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Gladys MacKnight, 17, and her former choir boy sweetheart, Donald Wightman, 19, were sentenced yesterday to from 29 to 30 years each at hard labor in state prison for the murder of the girl's mother, Mrs. Helen MacKnight.

The sentences were imposed by Judge Thomas F. Meaney, who presided at the 10-day trial which ended a week ago in the conviction of the young couple of second degree murder.

The maximum penalty the judge could impose was 30 years. The state had asked the death penalty for the pair, each of whom accused the other from the witness stand of striking the hatchet blows which killed Mrs. MacKnight.

Life Term Given Slayer of Woman

LONG BEACH. (AP)—Life imprisonment faced Paul McClelland, a sailor, formerly attached to the U. S. S. Twigg, today. The life sentence was imposed upon McClelland after a jury found him sane when he shot and killed his sister-in-law, Mrs. Virginia Davidson, last April 5.

Mrs. Davidson was slain during a conference in a lawyer's office over a divorce action filed by the sailor's wife. Two other persons were wounded in the burst of gunfire.

Dr. S. J. Francis, Santa Ana chiropractor, and wife are en route to London, Eng., to visit one of their three athletic sons, Dean, a Mormon missionary who will return to Tustin with his parents around Sept. 1.

Dean, who has been overseas for the past few months, plans to enter Brigham Young university in Utah next fall, taking with him Capt. Sam and Paul Francis from Tustin's Southern California High school basketball champions, and Miss Thora Francis, sister who has been in missionary work since graduation from Tustin High.

The Francis family planned to stop over in Wichita, Kan., this week-end to see their niece, Miss Ruth Lee of Santa Ana, in softball. . . . Miss Lee has been on a nation-wide tour with Film Actress Betty Compton and the Hollywood R. K. O. studio girls. . . . She won the trip on the strength of her softball playing in the Santa Ana Girls' league last summer.

Pole vaulters are still inches away from a "ceiling" in the cross-bar event, in the opinion of Bill Graber, one-time world's champion while at U. S. C. . . . Graber believes the "heavenly twins" of the Trojans, Capt. Bill Sefton and Earle Meadows, could have cleared 15 ft. 3 in. in the Pacific Coast conference finals last week instead of their record-breaking 14:11.

"It isn't that Bill and Earle have learned anything new since I was an active competitor," explains Graber. "It's just more intense competition that has pushed them to continued improvement. . . . They are now clearing 15 feet before the season closes."

Every regular of Tustin High's southland basketball champions played through the Tillers' softball schedule, too—Sam and Paul Francis, Vic and Walt Linker, and Larry Monroy.

Lawrence (Larry) Lutz, all-America tackle at California two years ago, is home to spend the summer with his parents in Santa Ana. He will return to Berkeley in the fall as first assistant in freshman football. . . . Floyd (Toy) Blower, Santa Ana's other grid great with the Bears, already has established headquarters in Los Angeles as southland "contact man" for the university.

Phil Wire, Colton's new chucker who fanned eight and outpitched "Chico" Sabella in a 4-3 upset of Huntington Beach Tuesday night, got his start with San Bernardino in the old American league four years ago. He deserted Class A softball to accept a job with the Santa Fe railroad, but he's back with Hubert Finlay's Reds now, and is certain to cause trouble.

Crystal-balling tonight's round of National Nightball league attractions: Santa Ana over Riverside at Riverside; Anaheim over Orange at Orange; Huntington Beach over Westminster at Westminster. Our record to date: Nineteen right and five wrong for a "batting average" of .791.

Brea's Lions have crawled into a pair of their own today—at the very top of the County Nightball league standings as the result of Virgil Kiger's impressive 9 to 7 upset of Irvine's 1936 champions before an enthusiastic crowd at Brea last night.

Rudy Montgomery, Brea's veteran pitcher, won his game despite home runs by Merle Hapes and Ed Starkey of Irvine. He fanned seven to Ira DeBusk's one. Each yielded 10 timely blows to make the game interesting for the spectators.

Out at Tustin, George Stevens' San Juan Capistrano club met defeat, 9 to 7, from George Dearborn's inspired Tustinites. F. D. Shaw's Holly Sugar company boys went on a real rampage to bowl over Olive's cellarites, 18 to 6, while Fullerton won over Yorba Linda with ease, 11 to 2.

Mrs. McFadden's 76 Wins; Trials End For President Cup

Mrs. J. L. McFadden, 82-6-76, won medal play for ladies at the Santa Ana Country club yesterday, with three sharing second-place honors—Mrs. C. H. Chapman, 102-19-83; Mrs. Harry Bakre, 89-6-83; Mrs. R. W. Weston, 97-14-83; Mrs. Roy Langley, 103-20-83.

Sunday is the last day for qualifying trials for the annual President's cup tournament for men, Professional Roy Renwick announced. . . . Dick Ewert, 1933 U. S. Open champion, and Jack Robertson have postponed their championship match in medal play until a week from Sunday.

Arizmendi Admits He's Father Of 4-Year-Old Boy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 4-year-old boy clasped his arms around Alberto (Baby) Arizmendi in a courtroom yesterday and made the little Mexican prizefighter admit something he has denied for four years—that he is the father of the youngster.

Arizmendi, former world's featherweight titleholder, pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support filed by Mrs. Frances Armenta Ayala, thereby acknowledging paternity of the child, Raul.

The mother, who as 17-year-old Frances Armenta, started legal action against the boxer in 1932 with a $500,000 betrayal suit, withdrew any claims for money.

LEWIS' TITLE RETAINED

ST. LOUIS (AP)—John Henry Lewis, a champion who has outclassed his class, today cast a speculative eye over the heavyweight field.

The Phoenix Phantom practically exhausted the raw material in the light heavy division last night when he stopped Bob Olin in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round title bout.

Lewis received $15,000 of a $23,872 gate. Olin, from whom Lewis won the crown in 1935, received 12½ per cent and a cracked rib.

The cracked rib was from a crushing right in the fourth round which sent Olin down for a seven count. He went down again early in the eighth, and on the third down Referee Walter Heiser rushed over to the nonchalant Lewis and raised his hand in token of victory, by technical knockout.

Olin, who amazed fans by slaying 15 rounds with Lewis in 1935, apparently was in no distress until the fourth round. In fact, he earned a draw the first two rounds with the slow-starting champion.

Lewis has matches with Jack McAvoy in England and Al Gainer in Pittsburgh, hanging fire.

Schmeling Angry at Commission; Only Rain Fills Garden

NEW YORK (AP)—Max Schmeling was just another heavyweight looking for a fight today.

Rain, and nothing else, filled the Madison Square Garden Bowl last night. A few hours before Jim Braddock, who under the terms of the original contract, was to have faced Schmeling there, had been suspended indefinitely. He was also fined $1000 for not putting in an appearance at the New York boxing commission offices, to weigh in for the bout by the commission.

Schmeling made it plain he thought the commission should have vacated the title and named him leading contender with an elimination journey to decide his opponent in a title fight.

A lot of baseball men laughed when old Bill McKeehan sat down at his desk last winter and signed a check of $100,000 for the rights to his Boston Bees. But Bill, as usual, proved about as foolish as a McGraw. Fette, a "youngster" of 30 years, for the last few seasons has been doing a workhorse act with considerable success for St. Paul of the American association.

Efforts were being made today to sign Don McDonald, famous West coast wrestling referee, as the man to handle Monday night's three-fall rematch at the Orange County Athletic club between Vincent Lopez, former world champion, and Hans Steinke.

Clinton will ask McDonald to handle all bouts on the new card, which shows "Cyclone" Walter Underhill against Leo (The Lion Man) Numa; Red Vagnonne vs. "Wildman" Zim and Bob Coleman vs. "Little Caesar" Grubbs.

'It Isn't All Over Yet,'
Shouts St. Louis Ace,
Who May Open Suit

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite Dizzy Dean's continued refusal today formally to sign any statement backing up his verbal denials of alleged controversial statements, the suspension of the Cardinal pitching ace was ordered lifted by Ford Frick, president of the National league, effective within 24 hours.

Frick announced lifting of the ban, under which he put Dean two days ago as an outgrowth of purported attacks by one pitcher on the league's chief executive and Umpire George Barr, after a chaotic conference at league headquarters.

Dean walked out of the meeting in a rage, at one time, declaring he was "all washed up," then was persuaded to return for another compromise attempt at settlement of the dispute. This consisted of a question and answer parley between Frick and Dean, with the pitcher flatly denying he made the critical statements attributed to him at St. Louis and Belleville, Ill.

Frick then announced lifting of the suspension, only to have Dean suddenly toss a further wrench into the peace proceedings. The pitcher shouted it was "not over yet," that he would carry an appeal to Commissioner Landis, regardless, and also "see my lawyer."

NEW YORK (AP)—Dizzy Dean walked out on Ford Frick, president of the National league, shortly before noon today as latest efforts to break the deadlock over the Cardinal pitcher's indefinite suspension failed. Dean abruptly quit his second conference with officials without signing any disavowal of alleged criticism of Frick and league umpires.

Dean emerged in high dudgeon after arguing for approximately one hour and a half with Frick at a meeting attended also by Clarence Lloyd, secretary, and Frank Fische, manager of the St. Louis club.

The pitcher disregarded advice from all sides to sign the compromise statement submitted to him, specifically disavowing statements criticizing the now-famous ball decision called against Dizzy, May 19, and refusing published accounts of a speech he made in Belleville, Ill., on May 25.

"My case is all washed up," shouted Dean as he emerged, red-faced and shaky with anger, from Frick's private office.

The pitcher said his next move would be an appeal to Commissioner Landis. He cannot do this until he has been under suspension for 10 days. Meantime, he is automatically off the Cardinal payroll.

BERKELEY RUNS AT BERKELEY

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Bruins of University of California at Los Angeles will be represented in the N. C. A. A. meet at Berkeley after all.

Coach Harry Trotter, seeking individual and not team honors, said Bill Reitz, holder of the Coast conference javelin-throwing record, lanky Tom Berkeley, hurdler, and Paul Van Alstine, distance runner, would go to Berkeley for the June 18-19 meet. Berkeley is a former Fullerton J. C. star.

It previously was reported U. C. L. A. would not be represented because, through oversight, entry fees had not been deposited.

Townsend News, Views

By
WALTER R. ROBB

A request comes from Mrs. L. E. Pickering that announcement be made that the Orange County Townsend Club Officers' association is called to meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m. in Santa Ana Townsend hall, 509 West Fourth street. She requests all who read this that they notify their club officers of the meeting and urge that they attend.

Tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Riverside Townsend headquarters there will be a meeting of the club presidents and speakers of the 15th district. This will be the second of a series of such meetings. Every Townsend speaker and club president who can do so should be present.

The writer is beginning to get reports from the clubs who had booths at the bazaar with check information. Tonight he has before him the results attained by Santa Ana club No. 6 as sent him by Mrs. Mary Herring and Miss Jane E. McKee, two sisters who reside at 125 West Nineteenth street. Recently the writer mentioned that he noted that Mrs. Edna Phillips, Mrs. Mary Herring, Mrs. Minnie Hogue and Mrs. I. R. Hendrie were very helpful in making this club's booth a success. He added there were many others whose names the writer did not get.

In the letter before him, a complete list of the others has been given him for which he is grateful. The list follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Law, Mr. and Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. E. M. Fuller, Mrs. M. L. Willard, Mrs. Carrie Carver, Mrs. E. M. Sparks, Mrs. Minnie Cobb, also Miss Bell Comfort and Miss Lottie Lyman. The letter says John Hogue was also very active in his help. The letter also gives credit to the little candy sales ladies that never quit their job in the large supply of home-made candy was sold. The communication says, "Everybody worked for the bazaar and its prosperity and club No. 6 found there was no drop in its hive." The club netted over $50 for its treasury from the booth. Considering that President A. M. Mapes and wife were absent, being in Washington state, Vice President E. M. Fuller also out of the city, as was the club treasurer, the writer thinks this was a mighty fine showing. The letter concludes with praise for District Manager J. H. Walsh and his co-workers for their leadership and faithful service to the Townsend cause in Orange county.

The news just came over the telephone to the writer that Mrs. L. E. Pickering of 1919 Valencia street has been elected as delegate to the Townsend national convention in Washington, D. C., July 21 to 25. W. J. Pickering, her husband, was selected as alternate. This is a nice recognition for the faithful service performed by both Mr. and Mrs. Pickering to the Santa Ana club No. 8 of which they are hard working members. Mr. Pickering served this club as president for approximately two years and Mrs. Pickering was its secretary for a similar period. They are the blue Townsends with good judgment and will be helpful as delegates to the convention. The club will meet again next Tuesday night at 7:30. On June 15 Clubs 8 and 10 will join in a supper social affair in the Lincoln school building. This information came from the genial and capable J. H. Nicholson, president of club No. 8.

O. S. Haynes, president of Costa Mesa club No. 1 was at Townsend headquarters Wednesday evening gathering up the booth number and so forth used at the bazaar. He was taking them back to Costa Mesa to be stored until needed again. This club met last evening in the music room of the Elementary school building for a business session. The particular business at hand was the selection of a delegate to the 19th district convention to be held in Riverside on Saturday afternoon, June 26. He hasn't heard yet who was selected. Next Thursday night on June 11, the three clubs of Costa Mesa will stage another joint meeting in the Woman's club building. A pot-luck dinner is included in the program and Rev. Phillee of Los Angeles has been selected as the mass meeting speaker. More details later.

Word comes from Anaheim that Mrs. Ida A. Freeman, vice president of the club there and wife of J. S. Freeman, has been elected as delegate to the Washington convention. This club had a booth at the bazaar which was very successfully conducted. The booth was sponsored by the club's ladies sewing circle, of which Mrs. J. Hildreth is president. She had a whole corps of able assistants who together with Mrs. Hildreth are to be congratulated on their success. A four-point Hudson Bay blanket owned by J. Hildreth which was on display during the bazaar at the Anaheim club booth attracted widespread attention. The polar expedition conducted by Admiral Byrd was fitted out with this style blanket so the writer was told by Mr. Hildreth, who became a Journal subscriber the first of the month.

FLINT FREED UNDER BOND OF $5000

Assemblyman Will Be Arraigned June 11 on Bribe Charge

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Assemblyman Gene Flint of Los Angeles was at liberty on $5000 bond today after his indictment on a charge he offered a fellow legislator a bribe for his vote on the Welsh oil bill. He will be arraigned June 11.

The indictment was returned by a grand jury called by District Attorney Otis D. Babcock to investigate purported legislative corruption charged by Senator Culbert L. Olson of Los Angeles in an address on the senate floor.

The assemblyman was specifically accused of having offered Assemblyman Fred Reaves of San Pedro a bribe to influence his vote on the oil measure.

Returned Envelope
Reaves testified before the grand jury Flint told him "there would be money available" if he voted for the Welsh bill to govern development of state-owned oil deposits. Later, Reaves said, Flint placed an envelope on his desk in the assembly chambers. He told the jury he did not open it, but returned the envelope to Flint as he was "not interested" in the offer. Reaves voted against the measure.

Flint was taken into custody on the courthouse grounds and taken to the county jail, where he posted the bond. The bribery charge carries a prison sentence of one to 10 years on conviction.

Jury Recessed
In a statement for Flint, Clifford Russell, his attorney, said: "Mr. Flint was of course surprised by the indictment. He had waited at the grand jury room, and expected to be called, but was not given the opportunity to make any statement or to be questioned by the members of the grand jury and the district attorney."

After returning the indictment the jury was recessed indefinitely to reconvene at the order of the court.

Babcock announced he would go to Los Angeles, probably late this week, to interview "certain" parties on circumstances surrounding a bill to re-route the Arroyo Seco highway in Pasadena, which Babcock said would come under scrutiny of the grand jury.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau announced he would offer $800,000,000 of notes Monday to meet a $300,000,000 maturity and put new cash in the treasury's working balance.

The $300,000,000 in discount bills falls due June 15.

With the remaining $500,000,000 allotted to treasury working cash, the national debt will climb to about $35,700,000,000, a new all-time peak.

For several weeks, the treasury's working balance has been around $500,000,000. The new borrowing will bring it to $1,000,000,000.

Stop and Go all day... every day

4 out of every 5 miles you drive are Stop and Go

EVERY TIME you STOP, you can waste enough gasoline to GO one-third of a mile. That's what runs up today's driving costs.

To cut down the high cost of stop-and-go driving, Shell engineers have developed a way to balance gasoline. By completely rearranging its chemical structure, this "balancing" process makes Super-Shell "digestible" for your motor... just as cooking makes food digestible for you.

"Motor-digestible" is the best way you can describe this new-type gasoline.

Your motor gets the full benefit of Super-Shell's high energy content... you get the savings!

There's a Shell dealer in your neighborhood. Stop there next time you need gas.

TELLS OF FIG PLAN HONOR TO WAR HEROES

At this time of the year many inquiries are received at the farm advisor's office concerning the excessive drop of figs of certain white varieties. This phenomenon is due, said Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg, to the lack of proper pollination of the fruit.

"The maturity of the Smyrna type fig or Calimyrna variety, as it is called in California, is dependent on the mechanical introduction of pollen from a male fig known as 'caprifig' into the flowers of the Calimyrna fig by means of a small wasp called the blastophaga. The blastophaga wasp is propagated in the caprifig, which is a primitive strain of fig bearing the essential pollen for cross fertilization. In commercial plantings of the Calimyrna variety, caprifig trees are inter-planted to supply the necessary means of cross pollination.

"Where only one or two trees are involved, however, the blastophaga wasp may be introduced by placing a small basket of caprifigs in the tree. The wasps emerge from the pollen bearing caprifigs and find their way into the interior of the Smyrna fig through the basal opening. The pistillate or female flowers of the fig are within the center structure of the fruit, where the seeds are later formed. This process of pollination, called caprification, is essential in the production of the Smyrna and white Santa Pedro types of figs."

Figures of the common type do not require caprification in order to mature the fruit, according to Wahlberg. Varieties of the latter group include the black mission, white Adriatic, brown Turkey or San Pedro, and the kadota or white Pacific.

Possibility of erecting a Spanish-American war monument in Santa Ana or Fairhaven cemetery was discussed by members of Calumet camp of the Spanish American War Veterans at its meeting Tuesday night, and Adjutant Charles E. W. post; Past Commander Charles M. Helme of Los Angeles camp No. 36; J. Edward Ketchum of Bakersfield, past department graves registration officer, and W. H. Blakemore of the Long Beach American Legion post.

Arthur Butler was elected a member by transfer from Glendale camp, and reports of Memorial services were given.

C. William Hannah reported on the encampment at Eureka, which 23 local members attended.

Past Department Commander Charles E. Dixon, on behalf of the city of Eureka, presented to the present commander, Charles I. Regan, for the camp, a gavel made of redwood burl.

PLAYGROUNDS TO OPEN JUNE 21

MAJOR TOWNS WILL HAVE PROGRAMS

Nine Areas Will Lure
S. A. Children in Summer Months

Thousands of Orange county youngsters will be kept off the streets and out of mischief when the annual summer playground program opens throughout the county June 21.

Truscott Lindsey, supervisor of the WPA recreational projects, today announced definite date of opening of the playground and recreational program for the summer. June 21 also will mark the beginning of celebration of statewide recreational week in this county, Lindsey announced. The supervisor plans to accentuate a different phase of recreational activity each day of the week.

Nine Areas Here
Nine playgrounds and recreational centers will be opened in Santa Ana, at the Lathrop, Willard, Logan, Fremont, Delhi, Edison, Franklin, Roosevelt and Lincoln schools.

On practically all of these school grounds there are tent bungalows, which will be used to house the various handicraft classes, including leather work, metal work, etc., and which will operate all summer. A program similar to the one in Santa Ana will be carried out in all of the larger communities of the county. Here the playgrounds will open at 9 a. m. and close at 5 p. m., excepting in the case of smaller centers, where the opening time will be 10 a. m.

First Aid Experts
There will be 130 supervisors of playgrounds employed for the big job. This is a number considerably smaller than the total used last year, but this year all supervisors are better trained, Lindsey said. He pointed out that all of the supervisors are proficient in first aid work and have been attending special training classes for two hours a week all year, preparing themselves for the program.

The program will be more extensive this year than ever before, Lindsey said. All kinds of outdoor sports and activities will be featured. Blanchard Beatty, representing the board of education, will be in charge of the high school plunge this year. The WPA will select several aquatic instructors to assist him.

Some activities for adults are planned for this summer, the extent of the program depending upon the interest and demand for this new phase of the project, Lindsey said.

DUKE'S KIN STAY HOME

LONDON, (AP)—Members of the British royal family stayed at home, at least officially, yesterday.

Neither King George VI nor any other member of the circle had any scheduled public appearances on the day of the Duke of Windsor's wedding to Wallis Warfield. This sudden seeming retreat from public gaze after most of the family had appeared at Epsom Wednesday for the Derby, caused considerable comment.

Some thought the king might be returning Windsor's gesture of May 12—when the Duke, during George's coronation, stayed in strict seclusion at the Chateau de Candé.

Others suggested apprehension lest the day bring forth embarrassing incidents such as that of Coronation day, when a man in Whitehall shouted: "England rejoice while King Edward VII lives in exile!"

BOURBONS TO REPORT ON ASSEMBLY

Mass Meeting Will Be Held Here June 22 at Junior High

First in a series of big events planned by the California Assembly of Democrats of Orange county will be staged Tuesday night, June 22, in the auditorium of the Willard Junior High school, Santa Ana, it was announced today by Chester I. Dale, general chairman.

This first event of the series will be a mass meeting of Democrats, who will hear progress reports from officers of the association and also hear addresses by George White, district WPA director from San Diego, Ralph Jenny, prominent San Diego attorney, and other outstanding speakers. A musical program also will be provided.

In July the Assembly of Democrats will stage a big pot-luck dinner event at Irvine park, and later a barbecue will be given.

Appointments

Selection of chairmen and members of four major committees of the assembly was announced today by Dale following a meeting of the executive committee.

Harry Bell, Fullerton, was named chairman of the speakers' bureau. He will be assisted by Dan Henry, Placentia, and Orrie Sisson, of Orange.

Kenneth Adams, Santa Ana, was named chairman of the publicity committee, and will be assisted by Mrs. M. E. Geeting and Mrs. Claudia Worswick, Santa Ana. The chairman was authorized to expand the membership of this committee.

Predicts Growth

On the membership committee, the executive group named Chester I. Dale as chairman. Other members are Judge C. P. Patton, Huntington Beach; Ben Carey, Fullerton; Mrs. Ruby Hungerford, La Habra; Col. W. L. Lowe, Placentia; Claude Pullen, Corona del Mar; Olga E. Hargrove, Anaheim; Orrie Leek, Capistrano; John Ackerman, Santa Ana; Mrs. Ora K. Hene, Santa Ana; Ben Seound, Cypress; Carl Brenner, Buena Park, and Orrie Sisson, Orange.

Dale predicted today that the county organization would have 5000 or more members before the primary elections next fall. The assembly is organized to present a united Democratic front on the campaign for state governor. The various county assemblies will unite to back one candidate.

Duke and Duchess Now Want To Live a 'Private Life'

MONTS, France (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor have voiced their hope for a "happy and useful private life" after the "trying time" of Edward's abdication preceding their marriage.

The Duke in a statement last night addressed to "the public," thanked all who had wished him and his beloved Wallis happiness.

He said:

"The Duchess and I wish to thank all those who have so kindly sent presents and good wishes on the occasion of our marriage."

Want Useful Life
"We shall never forget their friendly messages which mean so much to us today. After the trying time we have been through, we now look forward to a happy and useful private life and to that measure of peace which we hope will be granted to us."

In another statement, to the press, the Duke thanked newspapermen for their treatment of him and the Duchess. He appealed for "the privacy they feel now is their due," and promised that he would not withdraw into seclusion.

He said:

"The Duke and the Duchess of Windsor wish to take this opportunity of expressing to journalists their appreciation of the courtesy which has, for the most part, been shown to them under unprecedented circumstances."

Plan No Secrecy
"They would like to be on the record that, although intimate statements and reports seem to have been unavoidable during these months which have been trying for all concerned, there has been an evident willingness to contradict them."

"In regards the future, the Duke realizes that any atmosphere of secrecy would be unsatisfactory and will always be prepared to supply any news of importance concerning the Duchess and himself."

"At the same time, the Duke and Duchess while fully understanding the difficulties, want this day to appeal to the press of the world to give them that measure of consideration and privacy which they feel now is their due."

TEACHER PAY PLAN HERE POPULAR

New Schedule Adopted
by Other Schools
in Southland

Schools throughout Southern California are using the new Santa Ana schedule of teacher salaries, adopted by the board of education a month ago, as a working model, it was learned today. Superintendent of Schools Frank A. Henderson, who worked out the system here, presented an outline of the plan at a recent gathering of school superintendents in Riverside and has learned that a number are developing salary schedules along the same line.

Inducements

Attractive features of the system adopted here are that it bases salary both on years of service and upon training, and that it offers inducements to teachers to continue their studies and development.

It provides minimum salaries of $1200 and a maximum of $2200 for elementary teachers; from $1500 to $2800 for secondary teachers, and from $1500 to $3200 for junior college teachers.

Teachers are divided into six groups according to education, ranging from those who have less than three years training beyond high school to those who receive doctor's degrees or take an equivalent amount of training.

Penalty Provided

Unless a teacher takes six professional units of work each three years, she not only does not gain the annual increase of pay, but is lowered in pay, according to the schedule. Henderson said he does not anticipate that any such situation would develop.

Although the schedule does not go into effect until July 1, 1938, it was used in part by the board of education in setting salaries for the coming term.

With the completion of the Moscow-Volga Canal, the Russian city will receive water from the Volga before 1938.

Flags of all the nations taking part in the Paris International Exposition are copied in miniature on this colorful scarf of rough-surfaced natural silk. The result is a timely accessory in red, white, blue, yellow and bright green which may be worn in many ways.

The Friday Afternoon

By DONALD BUTTON

Activity attendant upon the hanging of a new show marked Tuesday at the Laguna gallery.

Pictures from the last show were all down, their successors arriving in almost constant stream. And all giving me such a splendid chance to see just what does go to making a show at Laguna.

Norman Chamberlain (he of the Huntington Park murals) had just brought a vivid landscape in which two horses were grazing.

Winifred Newman returns after too long absence with an elegant "Street Scene" that shows her interest in people and what they are doing. Her "Riding Academy" continues in my favor.

Seymour Paul contributes another of the strong landscapes he found in Mexico. Color and strong rhythm.

William Griffith proffers a yellowed Temple Hill that marks his return to painting after a long siege of illness.

In brief, these are the things which stood out in Tuesday's preview. The selections were not complete, the jury (meeting Wednesday) and I should not probably agree on what else should constitute the show.

Coming as this does, right at the very opening of the show, I'm urging you to get to Laguna this month or next. Your "previewer" recommends it!

"Me Without You," a currently popular tune, might be theme song for Ivan Bartlett and Jean Swiggett, whose painting and prints are lower gallery show at Laguna for June.

They are seldom mentioned separately by their friends, and it is hard to dissociate the two, working together in such close harmony.

Swiggett's map of Java, highly decorative in copper framing, and dominating a group of smaller maps, makes geography worthwhile.

His lithograph of grasses and shells is refined almost to point of abstraction.

Bartlett's block-print of "Hamlet" is excellent characterization, best of his print group.

Interesting and amusing is his "Roses in the Classic Manner," a study of hand, roses and lyre.

Equally decorative, perhaps my favorite of the Bartlett flower compositions, is his "Desert Candle and Callas."

Bartlett and Swiggett (you can't escape mentioning them in the same breath) have been consistent exhibitors in the Laguna gallery, but this is first group-showing, and likeable.

It gets a four-star recommendation!

Stanley Rose has a retrospective show of Maynard Dixon's work at his Hollywood gallery this month at the merits attention.

Dixon ranks high among painters of the pioneer and vanishing West. The Rose show is especially important for showing his growth in ability to paint.

John Coleman Burroughs' admirers will be trickling to Padua Hills these days to see the exhibit of his work hung there Tuesday.

Burroughs, Pomona college graduate, has risen rapidly to eminence in the painting field. The Padua show is proof of his ability even strangers to his work should want to see.

A bowl of flowers, to which each member had contributed some of the choicest blossoms from her own garden, was the section's gift to their retiring leader, whose place is being taken by Mrs. E. L. Morrison.

During the afternoon session in the lounge, after members had given their current events in response to roll call, Mrs. Preble turned the gavel over to Mrs. Morrison, who introduced as her other new officers, Mrs. Cox, assistant leader, and Mrs. J. C. Sutton, secretary-treasurer.

TRAVELER IS HONORED AT MEETING

Miss Gretchen Liebermann was guest of honor at a meeting of Deutsche Verien club this week when members gave her a surprise shower of handkerchiefs. Miss Liebermann will leave as soon as school is out for Europe, planning to spend most of the summer in the Black Forest of Germany.

The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Katherine Schmiedberg, 1202 North Van Ness street. Mrs. B. B. Walbridge was co-hostess in serving a dainty refreshment course.

Members spent the evening in singing German folk songs and perfecting German dialogue. Several charming songs were heard, presented by Mr. and Mrs. John Charlotte McCausland, retiring honored queen of the Ebell, and to Abe Bergsetter went the honor of installing the two groups of officers.

Miss Causland was escorted in by Frank Sawyer, Ebell associate guardian, and Mr. Bergsetter by Dr. Roy Horton, DeMolay advisor. Other installing officers of the Job's Daughters were Dr. Roy Horton, Audrey McDonald, Lorraine Wheeler, and Joanna Overman; and Mr. Bergsetter was assisted by Robert Read, William Sylvester, and George Matthew.

Rituals Lovely

Formation of a cross by the new Ebell officers, and the formation of a shield around the cross by the DeMolays, was a beautiful feature of the joint installation, which started with the escorting of the new officers into the lodge room. Mary Crowe, new honored queen, and Hans Bergsetter, new master counselor, came in together.

After the ceremony, W. J. Dean of the Ebell advisory committee, presented the past queen's jewel to Miss McCausland. Miss Crowe's father presented the Ebell honored queen with her gavel. Mr. Bergsetter received his gavel from his brother, Abe Bergsetter.

Dance Follows

Flowers through the lodge room had been arranged by the mothers' circles of the two organizations; and potted palms made an attractive setting in the basement of the ceremonial. Punch and wafers were served to the guests during the dance hours.

SHOES GO GAY

NEW YORK. (AP)—Race track fashions indicate great interest in shoes of bright-colored leather. Copper and rust shades are popular favorites and bright red and wine are popular. All four provide gay accents for beige costumes.

Corn now occupies more land than cotton in the South. In 1935 the South harvested 10 per cent more acres of corn than cotton.

Happy Birthday

The Journal today congratulates:

RICHARD ASHCRAFT, Tustin.

MRS. ELLIOTT H. ROWLAND, 2418 Fairmont, Santa Ana.

And to one more for yesterday: MRS. E. T. ROWLAND, 520 Virginia street, Santa Ana.

Wednesday, The Beissels will return later in the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stigers of Watsonville, spent a few days this week with the former's brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stigers of 1539 East Fourth street, in Santa Ana.

Mrs. Bessie Gray of Modesto arrived Monday to spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Charles Boyd, who is ill at her home at 725 Oak street.

Mrs. Teodora Soum, 119 Flora street, left for Ensenada Wednesday, accompanied by her brother, Francisco Almeida, where they were called by news of an injury to their brother, Victor Almeida.

Dixieland citizens will rally at a reunion picnic Saturday, June 12, in Sycamore Grove park, it was announced today. All former residents and tourists of Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia are invited to attend the affair, at which hot coffee and badges will be supplied.

Mrs. Millie Galbreth left today for New York City, where she will meet her mother, Mrs. Bessie Mize, who is returning from England. Mrs. Mize went over early in May to be there for the coronation festivities.

Miss Ernestine Wakeham, who is associated with the Infant Shelter in San Francisco, and her friend, Miss Dorothy Muirs of that city, are spending two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wakeham, in Garden Grove. Last evening, they and Miss Eleanor Wisner, also of Garden Grove, were dinner guests of Miss Betty Vance at her home on Orange avenue, Santa Ana.

The Texas planning board reports that only about 6,000,000 of 60,000,000 pounds of wool produced annually in Texas can be secured profitably in the state.

Garden Secrets

By WILLIS CADWALLADER of Blanding Nurseries

wrapped in tissue paper to prevent wilting. There are lots of flowers everywhere—Amy Lowell.

At this season of the year, when warm weather is approaching and there are so many flowers that we may cut for house decoration, we wonder about methods of prolonging their lasting qualities.

As a general method, florists seem to prefer frequent changing of the water and plenty of good fresh air. This does not mean placing cut flowers in a draft however, which will tend to cause wilting.

Some varieties have more lasting power than others. Searing the ends of the stem with boiling water helps to seal in natural juices, and if flowers are being shipped to a distant city, the ends of the stems should be dipped in hot paraffin.

To revive flowers that have wilted, sink them in a vessel of water up to their neck and keep them there until they have freshened. It has been claimed that wilted flowers may be revived by putting them in boiling water. In doing this the flower heads must be cut just as the buds are beginning to open. All hard, fibrous stemmed flowers such as roses, wisteria, syringa, chrysanthemums, wallflowers, etc., should have the stems well hammered before arranging in vases. This leaves a greater surface exposed to the water. Splitting the stems gives the same result.

In arranging these flowers with leafy stems the leaves should be stripped off that part that is in the water. Besides lengthening the period of freshness for the flowers it helps keep the water from stagnating.

A teaspoon of sugar in the water seems to help the staying quality of tulips and gladioli. The sugar apparently helps to hold them erect and stiff.

There have been several chemical preparations introduced to perpetuate the life of cut flowers. Most of them have been found wanting. Aspirin tablets have been used in the water, but to what degree of success is hard to determine.

Other chemicals including alcohol, are also used, but our local florists prefer frequent changing of the water, plenty of good fresh air, a cool temperature, cutting the flowers back an inch or so every two or three days, and picking them in the first place when they are new and fresh.

MRS. ZERMAN IS SURPRISE GUEST OF HONOR

Mrs. Roy Ivins was hostess to a group of friends Thursday at her home, 114 East Cubbon street, complimenting Mrs. A. N. Zerman. The latter has opened her beach home many times to the same group, and to show their appreciation, they united in presenting a pretty gift for her cottage to Mrs. Zerman.

A salad course at prettily decorated tables preceded the afternoon of cards, and was served to the Mesdames May Ferrar, E. F. Museum, Margaret Church, Bertha Berry, Anna James, Edith Snow, Charles Artz, Alvin Nowotny, Charles Arnold, H. MacVicker, Smith, E. F. Perkins, Jule Smith, E. T. Mateer, J. B. Haas, and Mrs. Zerman.

Mrs. Church won first prize in the bridge games, Mrs. Berry second, and Mrs. Edith Snow, consolation.

D. A. R. TO INSTALL MONDAY

Mrs. Cotton Mather will be installed as new president of Santa Ana chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the other new officers will be installed in the duces, at the luncheon meeting scheduled for next Monday at 12:30 p. m. at the Mather home.

If weather permits, the luncheon will be served in the gardens. Reports are to be given by officers and chairmen, and a musical program is planned in addition to the installation ceremony. This will conclude the year for the chapter, which will adjourn until fall.

AMATEUR SHOW AFTER MEETING

American Legion Junior auxiliary made plans for a picnic June 24 in Orange park when it met yesterday afternoon in the Veterans' hall.

Seven members and one visitor, Juanita Rohlf, attended the meeting, which concluded with serving of ice cream and cookies. An amateur show followed adjournment. Participants in the show program were Mabel Louise Gasteik, Vermae Stigers, Mary Hoover, Phyllis Sandon, Shirley Edgar and Mary Alice Eklund, Mary Hoover winning the prize for her piano solo.

WOMAN'S CLUB SOCIAL

Evening social section of the Santa Ana Woman's club will honor husbands of the members at a dinner on Saturday night, June 26, instead of June 19, as previously planned. The party will be held at the J. D. Watkins home on 1530 Island, the hour for the covered dish dinner being set for 6:30 o'clock. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Richard Pagett, section leader.

Mock Rites Feature Shower

Ernestine Erwin was the "bride," Mildred Cowan the "groom," and Mrs. Everett Cornet the "preacher" in a mock wedding which provided hilarious moments at a kitchen shower given Wednesday night in honor of Miss Evelyn Coffman.

Hostesses at the pre-nuptial courtesy, preceding by a few weeks the late June wedding of Miss Coffman and Bill Graupensperger, who will exchange vows on June 27, were the Misses Evelyn Hammett and Ann Sutherland. Setting for the party was the Hammett home on East Fourth street.

After the mock wedding, for which Miss Sutherland played the wedding march, the guests made poetic wishes for the bride, Mrs. Neill Adams' contribution winning first prize and Miss Erwin's low.

After the shower of kitchen gifts had been unwrapped by the honored guest, the friends were seated at one table which was centered with a bride made entirely of kitchen utensils. Places were marked by little brides with tulle veils, the cards the handiwork of Miss Hammett. Appointments were predominantly in white and amber tones, and flowers from the Hammett gardens decked the other rooms of the home.

Present to honor the bride-to-be on this occasion were the Misses Lillian Graupensperger, Ethel Duckett, Virginia Golden, Ernestine Erwin, and Mildred Cowan; Mesdames George Summers, Neill Adams, and Everett Cornet, and the two hostesses and Miss Hammett's mother, Mrs. C. F. Hammett.

INDEPENDENT STUDIOS HIT BY STRIKE

Federated Crafts Try For Showdown With Newest Move

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—The motion picture strike spread to 28 independent studios today, with a claimed 750 workmen called out. The Federated Motion Picture Crafts which walked out of the major studios more than a month ago declaring union recognition their first objective, ordered out fellow workers in independent studios in an effort to force a showdown with the producers.

The latter have indicated a willingness to grant the F. M. P. C. demands if the jurisdictional dispute with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees is settled. In fact, Edward H. Fitzgerald, department of labor arbitrator, said an agreement announced last Tuesday "settled the strike in authorized union manner and officially the strike is over."

"At that time," he said, "Joseph Clarke, international vice president of the painters' union, which led the strike, signed a basic agreement. President George Browne, of the I. A. T. S. E., accepted the agreement."

It proved that the F. M. P. C. be dissolved and the crafts be absorbed by the I. A. T. S. E. A 24-hour "deadline" set for dissolution of the F. M. P. C. passed last night and Charles Lessing, crafts leader, announced the crafts had refused to ally themselves with the I. A. T. S. E. and the strike was still on.

They are: Mrs. Josephine Collin Glendale, president; Mrs. Caroline Ogilvie, Berkeley; Mrs. Louise Murr, Napa; Mrs. Nestella Riggan, Fresno; and Mrs. Cora Cumpson, Los Angeles, vice presidents.

Sailor Commits Suicide With Joke on His Lips

SAN DIEGO. (AP)—"Some fun, eh kid?" shouted Cecil Roy Jordan, 21, seaman first class, to a shipmate yesterday as he leaped to his death from the U. S. S. Barry with a 50-pound anchor lashed to his leg.

Submerged for more than 20 minutes in the waters of the bay, his body was brought to the surface by a diver from the U. S. S. Whitney. Shipmates said that Jordan had joked about suicide for several months.

MARKET OFFERS BIG SPECIALS

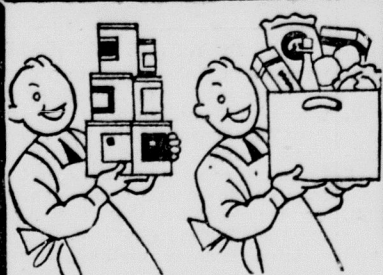

"Jack" Boardman, manager of the Grand Central Market, announced today that many of the merchants of this market again will feature one item each and make them super specials from 7 to 9 Saturday evening. This makes it possible for the public to make large savings on the items featured. These savings may be found on this market's two pages of advertising in today's Journal. Boardman points out that, with so many merchants under one roof, the busy housewife can save much time and many steps by shopping at such a compact business center. For the convenience of the public there is a sub-post-office in the market.

Almost every type of store is present in this mammoth market, which has truly been termed, for this size of city, the largest unit of its kind on the Pacific coast.

Californians Die In Train Wreck

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Two persons, identified as Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oliver Hyatt of Sacramento, Calif., were killed and 15 cars were derailed in the wreck of an east-bound Southern Pacific freight train 60 miles east of here, near Hazen, Nev., yesterday.

Identification of the two bodies was made by social security cards carried in their suitcase. A letter in the suitcase indicated Eliza Hyatt of Centerville, Iowa, to be the father of the dead man.

BRICK DUST

HERE and THERE

with T. N. (Brick) GAINES

Ole John Gregory, that guy who wears a policeman's cap and sits behind the desk in the Fullerton bastille, is getting all steamed up again!

John hasn't been excited for a couple of months, which is v-r-y, very rare. He's always promoting something in the good name of the Izaak Walton league, and he has not done much—for publication, anyway—since their big outdoor show last month.

But now he has a couple of big events on his hands, and is getting pleasantly stirred up about 'em.

First, he's arranged for presentation of "The Last Wilderness," which seems to be a moon picture in which Howard Hill, world champion archer, performs.

Not only that, but John has arranged for Hill to attend the show and beforehand he'll give an exhibition of how to handle a bow and arrow. He's really a champion, and is the guy who had eight arrows in the air at once, which sounds like something!

And then John has made arrangements for the Ikes to be host to the County Peace Officers' association next month. The county cops have been struggling along with pretty slim attendance lately, and he's guaranteed to keep things up slightly. The meeting'll be held in the Ike Walton cabin in Hillcrest park, and from the whispering I hear, it's to be a shindig. I hope the press is invited!

Judge James L. Allen, from our superior court, was host to newsmen the other night at Corona Del Mar.

Before this, I thought superior court judges were gruff old guys who snapped at people and pushed little ducks in the water. But I was wrong. He's a fine host and a good talker and is very, very human. I'm for him!

And he taught us something about eating too. It was at Rossi's Corona Del Mar cafe, which isn't an advertisement, but a hint. We had the best Italian meal I've ever eaten. Although I had to fight with a number of Fourth Estaters for my share of the pickled mushrooms, which were simply wonderful!

Councilman Lloyd Claire at Newport has had such a bad stomach ache that it's made his feet hurt for the past week or so, but he's feeling better now.

He was feeling so much better yesterday that he was diving into the innards of an automobile, when I saw him!

And I've been worrying about something, speaking of councilmen. Yesterday I planned a letter about vacations on Former Mayor Henry Fite at San Clemente. Since then I've been thinking about the guy who wants to eat turkey three times a day for two weeks might be Councilman J. E. Riley at Orange. Isn't he the guy who eats 'em boned and all?

Newport Beach's venerable city hall celebrates something of an anniversary next week. It's 32 years old, having been built in 1905, but next week marks the twenty-fifth year since a letter from the city board in 1912 for $6000, remarking it was cheap at the price because the schoolhouse "occupies a central position on the ocean front adjoining the property of the Southern Pacific."

Then—in 1912—they reported "The schoolhouse was built in 1905 and is in excellent repair, and will not be needed longer on account of the new building for a school to go up at once on Fourteenth street."

And it's been a city hall ever since, and the city fathers moved into it with a sigh of relief.

They had been occupying quarters in the bathhouse!

Putting the age at 32 years ought to bring a sinister note to the recent discovery made by a group of workmen.

Under the venerable building, which was a schoolhouse when it was built, was found a case of venerable whisky, which disappeared soon after it was unearthed. Estimates of the age of the whisky, before it was discovered missing, ranged from 30 to 25 years.

Schoolhouses, and city halls, though, don't improve with age.

Million Dollar BACHELOR
by Kathryn Culver

The late Marcus Trent has left a million dollars to his nephew, Rodney Burton, provided he is unmarried when he reaches twenty-five. Otherwise it goes to a society headed by J. Montrose Pettigrew. Rodney, leading an isolated life in the mountains near Gunnison, Colorado, is not to be informed of the terms of the will. Pettigrew hires Sari Saunders to go to Gunnison and maneuver him into marriage before his twenty-fifth birthday, a month away.

Trent's lawyer dispatches Judy Collins to Gunnison to thwart this scheme, and Judy's fiancé, Peter Dent, sends his sister Maureen, unknown to Judy, to reach the twenty-five. Sari becomes engaged to Rodney, but has fallen in love with his friend, Jim Matthews. Judy, to prevent the wedding, tries to get herself into a compromising situation with Rodney. She appears at his lonely cabin late at night, feigns a twisted ankle, and insists that he give her shelter. As they are arguing a knock sounds on the door.

CHAPTER XXVIII
"Who can it be," said Judy, wondering in chagrin, if Jim had returned after all. Rodney glanced wildly from his pajama-clad self to Judy sitting cozily on the bunk wrapped in a blanket. It was like a horrible nightmare. He could not move or speak.

The knocking on the cabin door became louder, more demanding. Judy said sharply, "You'd better go open it before they batter it down."

Rodney went to the door like a man walking in his sleep, lifted the bar, and turned the knob. As he opened the door, a dripping light in a rain cap pushed past him.

It was Maureen. "What a night for ducks!" she said cheerily.

Judy sank back on the bunk with a queer expression on her face, an expression of dismay strangely mixed with defiance.

Rodney's immediate sensation was one of relief. Maureen's arrival lifted a great load from his mind. Maureen would make everything all right—and she would understand without asking any awkward questions. It didn't occur to him to wonder how she happened to be there.

MAUREEN was calmly shrugging off her raincoat, acting as though it was the most natural thing in the world for her to non up like this in the middle of the night. Her eyes fell on Judy's bare foot and the ban of water.

"You've hurt your ankle! Is it bad?" she said with a false show of concern.

"It's much better," Judy told her coldly. "Rod is a wonderful nurse."

Maureen bent down beside her and felt the ankle with practiced powers," she said dryly. "You can't tell that it's been injured."

"That's very strange," Rodney offered diffidently. "It pained me terribly when she first arrived. I had no idea that hot water would effect so swift a cure."

Maureen said, "M-m-m," with a knowing glance at Judy.

"She endured agonies reaching the cabin," Rodney went on. "She was quite exhausted when she got this far and could not so any farther."

"I quite understand," said Maureen. "But I expect she can walk now. If you will come along, I

ROTARY CLUB HEARS TALK BY MILLER

ORANGE.—Dick Miller, Huntington Beach fly casting champion and maker of trout flies, was speaker at Thursday's meeting of the Rotary club, introduced by Wade Flippin as program chairman.

He told of the casting club at Huntington Beach which has a membership of 125, and of how the best casts are the results of long hours of practice. The speaker also illustrated the technique of handling a fly rod and told how he exceeded the world's record salmon fly cast by nine feet, or a total of 179 feet.

President H. D. Nichols presided, and the following guests were present: Miss Alice Haskell, Portland, a member of the Progressive Oregonians; J. W. Sill, Laguna Beach; George Hill, Riverside; Albert Newcomb, Corona, and T. W. Jesse, Mac O. Robbins and Les Fountain, Santa Ana.

Release Man on Cigaret Charge

FULLERTON.—Fredico Dominguez, clerk in a grocery store on East Truslow street, charged with selling cigarettes to minors, was released from the charges yesterday morning in Judge H. I. Spence's court when City Attorney Lloyd Verry asked dismissal of the case on insufficient grounds to obtain a conviction. Judge Spence cautioned Dominguez against further offenses of this nature.

When he was gone, Judy whispered explosively to Maureen. "You've spoiled everything! If you'd stayed away, he would have had to break his engagement to Sari and offer to marry me!"

Maureen's face was a study in conflicting emotions. She had come to the cabin impulsively, after guessing the desperate thing Judy had planned, and had been spurred by two motives.

Foremost had been her promise to Peter. She couldn't fail him by letting Judy compromise herself with another man. The second motive, almost as strong as the first, had been the wish to protect Rodney from becoming hopelessly involved.

She didn't attempt, however, to explain her reasons to Judy. She simply said: "I'm sorry, but I didn't see what could be gained by letting you go through with such a reckless plan. When I realized you were coming here, I simply had to follow you."

"But," Judy said angrily, "I thought you wanted to help me keep him from marrying Sari."

"Not by sacrificing your reputation," Maureen told her sharply.

JUDY bit back an angry reply. Here they were, fighting each other when they should be fighting shoulder to shoulder against Sari.

Day after tomorrow would be the 23rd—the day before Rodney's 25th birthday—and Sari and Rodney's wedding day. It was a hopeless situation. Rodney would lose his million dollars, she would lose $10,000—and Peter. A smothering sensation came over her. The money didn't matter, but Peter mattered desperately—and she had to do something to justify herself, she would lose him!

And it was Maureen's fault! Judy lay back on the bunk and glared at her. She had ruined everything by her meddling!

FISHING PRESERVE ACTION TO BE SOUGHT BY COAST GROUP

HOT SPRINGS PLAN TO BE DISCUSSED

Association to Meet in San Clemente June 15 To Plan Campaign

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Fishing and a proposed health center at San Juan Hot Springs will be subjects for discussion of the monthly meeting of the Orange County Coast Association June 15, President Leslie F. Kimmell announced today.

Further steps to be taken in the attempt to secure protection for coastal fishing grounds from purse seiners will be discussed by several speakers, Kimmell said. Several new lines of attack on the problem will be reviewed, he added, including the proposed state-wide initiative plan, and a possible county ordinance closing local waters to seiners.

Coast association members were instrumental in starting the initiative plan and probably will take actual steps to start such action at the meeting, which will be held at the Wayside Inn, cafe in San Clemente, Kimmell added.

Although Dr. Thomas Spencer Miller of Laguna, chairman of a committee seeking to put through a health center plan at the hot springs, is in the east, several members are expected to attend progress of the plan, Dr. Miller has contacted several agencies in Washington seeking support of the plan, it was learned today.

Another interesting topic to be brought before the membership will be oil pollution on county beaches, President Kimmell said. Further aid from the state division of fish and game and the Coast Guard probably will be sought by members in their fight against the oil, which is thought to come from bilges of steamers at sea, Kimmell added.

BIG SHOTS LIKE LETTERS

Balboa Collector Gets Praise

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—President Roosevelt may not want to come to these parts to go sword-fishing or for his summer white house, but he thinks local stamp collectors are fine.

When E. J. Louis obtained a number of special envelopes marking the Glenn Martin flight to Catalina, he thoughtfully sent one to the chief executive, who is an ardent collector.

And Louis received an immediate reply from Roosevelt's private secretary, M. A. LeHand, thanking him for the addition to the presidential collection.

Another collector made happy was Postmaster General Farley, who wrote a personal letter naming Louis for the cacheted envelope.

The envelopes were made doubly valuable because of being autographed by Martin and by four postmasters, W. H. Adams from Newport; Alfonso Hamann, Balboa; Mary Evelyn Rider, Balboa Island; and James B. Ogden, Avalon.

The winner of the contest will be given a cash award of $5. Theme ideas in years previous included "pirates" and "artists." This year the festival board wants something "really different," and with a wide selection to choose from by means of the contest, the board expects a startling theme to sprout forth from Laguna's collective creative mind.

A new feature of the "Pageant of the Masters" section of the festival, conducted by Roy M. Ropp, artist and realtor, will be "Portraits of the Future." Laguna girls will be depicted type of modern womanhood, such as the actress, the aviatrix, and the danseuse.

SPEAKER LAUDS DENVER MEN IN MESA LIONS

Harris also said the local group of 40 members was the ideal size, both from the standpoint of community service and personal enjoyment. A nominating committee composed of W. H. Foord, C. W. TeWinkle and Henry Abrams was appointed and will name their choice of officers at the meeting next week. Dr. Wherry will be program chairman.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK. (P)—Leading stocks switched back on the recovery track in today's market after drifting moderately downward in early proceedings.

The President's press conference remarks left the list cool for a time but, after some study, trading forces apparently found buying fuel in the chief executive's warning to newsmen "not to worry" over the gold situation, and in his statement no more measures would be sent congress this session.

His assurance the court reform program would be put through without compromise seemingly was in line with expectations.

The stock turnover was the smallest in more than two years until near the final hour, when the ticker tape got a bit busier. Prices followed:

Cultivating Civic Consciousness

RALPH SMEDLEY—who has brought fame to Santa Ana as the founder of Toastmaster International—undertook the job 10 years ago of cultivating civic spirit in Santa Ana.

In the Rotary Wheelbarrow, a service club publication which he edited, he ran interviews in 1928 with club members. Among them were these suggestions for Santa Ana—

Santa Ana should have more trees along its streets. Every time the city council permits a tree to be cut down, it should have another planted.

More truth about life and climate in California, so as not to attract people here who can't support themselves.

A distinctive local attraction like the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena or the Orange show at San Bernardino.

More business men who will devote time and thought to municipal affairs.

More streets that join each other on the square instead of with a jog.

A civic auditorium and more parks.

Some of these seeds fell on fertile ground and sprouted. Others dropped in rocky soil and dried up.

But the supply of seeds is inexhaustible so long as there are men and women who dream of a bigger and better city.

Who knows but what another 10 years will see Smedley's "Needs of Santa Ana" produce a bountiful crop along with many of the "Bits of Vision" which we have been planting in this column during the past few weeks?

Judging from the comments of Supervisors Finley and Mitchell the big coffee and soft drink firms could get some good testimonial advertising at the courthouse during the mornings.

If Edward Had Been Braver—

NOW that Edward is safely married to Wally, we wonder what would have happened if this man who was once a king had dared to fight the enemies that forced him to give up the crown.

It took courage to surrender the throne, of course.

But it would have taken more courage to defy the politicians and churchmen who were opposed to seeing a twice-divorced American woman sitting legally by their king—although they did not seem to object, unfortunately, to the possibility of an illegal association.

If Edward had possessed the real fighting blood that a true king should have, he might have kept his throne and had Wally for a wife, too.

And such a victory—supported by the world and a vast number of subjects at home—would have transformed Edward into a great democratic leader with far-reaching power for aiding the poor and underprivileged classes of England.

Anyone who thinks that the government hasn't gone in for building should take a look at the tax structure.

Wings Over The Arctic

THIS business of flying over the North Pole from Moscow to San Francisco isn't as silly as it may sound. Those Russians are using their heads.

As Vilhjalmur Stefansson, noted Arctic explorer, points out in the Rotarian magazine:

"Most great cities are in the north temperate zone. The direct airlines between them lie across the Arctic. By these routes you save from one to several thousand miles, compared with the usual rail and steamer lines. They are typical routes."

He adds that the flying weather of the polar regions is generally better than it is in the northern part of the U. S. A. in winter and that the terrain contains many natural emergency landing fields.

If Stefansson and the Soviet airmen are right, the North Pole may someday become the great aerial crossroads of the northern hemisphere.

"Fords branded as hot cargo." Well, there were times when the old Model T used to get plenty hot climbing up a hill.

Last War Was 'Child's Play'

ASK any veteran who saw service in France and he will tell you that war was plain hell 20 years ago. Maj. Frederick I. Lord, 36-year-old veteran of six wars, now in Los Angeles after a trip to Spain, agrees with that description of the World War—but adds that the late international conflict was just "child's play" compared to the present strife in Spain.

He tells of rebel forces setting fire to hospitals and then shooting down the wounded patients and attendants as they ran out.

All the more reason for America to tend to its own business and stay out of the next conflict—not contributing either a dollar or a life.

The world is like a board with knots in it and the knots are very conspicuous these days.

Times Too Good

SIR ARTHUR BALFOUR, British industrialist, warns of danger of an economic crash in the British Empire within the next two years because, he says, "times are too good."

This doesn't fit in very well with the news that there are millions of men in England who haven't worked for five or more years. Does Sir Arthur think times have been too good for them?

Any future crash in Europe won't come because people have been given better homes and better standards of living. It will come because the wealth of the nations has been drained away to pay for war and for preparation for war.

Thoughts while strolling: Add derbys—Major Bowes and Conde Nast. Nothing stirrer waderlike like a liner nosing out to open sea. Reddest of the red-haired orchestra leaders: Richard Himber. Rhyme: For a swift dancing caper, no one is topping Paul Draper. Otto Soglow is the same size and shape of the king he draws. Never knew anyone who didn't like Grantland Rice. Ogden Nash still looks the collegiate freshman and Roy Howard continues to turn in those shirt and tie combinations.

Any magazine would top a million for the Duke of Windsor's thoughts. Comics have to step some to be funnier than W. C. Fields on the radio. Or anywhere else.

Tempus fugit note: F. Scott Fitzgerald thatching grey at the temples. Famous walks: Hope Williams, Otis Skinner, Dolores, Mrs. Fisher, Jack Denney and Chaplin. Connecticut neighbors: Gene Tunney and Heywood Brown. America's highest priced society reporter, Maury Paul in his Rolls. Wonder if Tobie Summer knows Ohie Winters? Ambition: To have James Melton's voice and join the boys on the court house steps in "Sweet Adeline!"

The entire state of Alabama is going to town for its favorite theatrical daughter, the glamorous Tallulah Bankhead, as a selection for the "Scarlett O'Hara" role in "Gone With the Wind." Editorials are being written and public meetings are being held to further the plea. Alabamians feel the interpreter of Scarlett must be a brilliant, vivacious dashing personality. "Tallu" is all that, with a hefty plus. She should be of the South South and she is that. Also the actress is the daughter of an eminent Southern family, the grand-daughter of a Confederate captain, and has the proper accent. Too, there is a growing demand for Miriam Hopkins, another Southern daughter.

Daniel Frohman, who will be 87 this August, has eaten but one meal a day for years. His method is simple. He eats the meal, and a big one, when he is hungry. It may be at 9 o'clock in the morning, 3 in the afternoon or 11 at night. He believes that too many people allow their appetites to be guided by the hour. That is: "Well it is 1 o'clock and I must go out to lunch." Frohman's only diversion is bridge, and he plays a first class game.

Jack Baragwanath, the mining engineer, who has been known chiefly among the cognescenti as Neysa McMein's husband, is chucking off that more or less cloistered role. Recently he authored a book on prospecting to show that he has been around and seen a few things in queer corners of the world. Then he tried his hand at painting, and they say that one or two of his nudes put September Morn smack back in the horse and buggy era. Now comes news he has authored a play that is brimming with vim and vinegar.

In the Ghetto at least the canopied carriage, horse drawn, has survived. There are two or three that appear in crowded centers on Sunday morning in side streets off Grand with drivers in faded uniforms and shabby high hats. They are filled with denizens who get a ten-block ride for 25 cents. For many tired tenement housewives and mothers this relaxation is the only surcease from the eternal hub-bub.

Many of us ex-trick bicycle riders—see L. A. W. report of Gallia county meet for July, 1900—are gladdened by a revival of the art. Three have been featured in cabaret floor shows this winter. The one of course is Joe Jackson's comedy trick act which goes on and on as a headliner in variety halls all over the world.

The climax of my trick bicycling was to ride, after a running start, with one foot on the saddle and the other on the handle-bars, arms folded. Was I the one? I was at least until the fatal day the front tire contacted a discarded watermelon rind. They carried me, feet up, on a shutter, home to grandma with a stove-neck, a twisted sacroiliac and two dangling front teeth.

The world's tallest school building—the University of Pittsburgh's 42-story Cathedral of Learning—rises to a height of 535 feet.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—The nation to watch in the European situation is not so much Germany but Italy. The Germans have been in the headlines, but actual fact is that had it not been for the bombing of the Deutschland, they were about ready to quit the Spanish war.

Not so with the Italians, however. Mussolini considers Spain his meat. He wants a government at the western mouth of the Mediterranean which will be under his thumb. This is a part of his plan to re-create the old Roman empire.

The basic trouble in Europe right now is the increasing conflict of interest between Great Britain and Italy. Some day they are going to clash.

MEDITERRANEAN WAR
The conflict in Spain, but in the length and breadth of the Mediterranean—even beyond. Here are important instances in which the Italians recently have got in the British hair:

1. The Fascist radio station at Bari, southern Italy, sent out a constant stream of anti-British propaganda—in Arabic, Egyptian, Hindustani and Jewish.

To get an audience for this, Italian salesmen have virtually given away radio sets in the Near East, specializing in cafes, at which the average Arab loves to sit. The effect on British prestige has been deadly.

2. Not so long ago Indian tribes on the northwest border of India appeared with modern rifles and machine guns, where they had been armed with old-fashioned muskets before. The arms were of Italian make.

3. Mussolini has continued fortifying the Libyan border adjacent to Egypt and has built a concrete highway over the desert to reach it. On the other side of Egypt is Ethiopia, which he also rules.

4. The Balearic Isles, strategically placed near the mouth of the western Mediterranean, are now an Italian armed camp.

5. The Italian port of Massawa, in Eritrea on the Red Sea, and the island of Pantelleria between Sicily and North Africa, are now as well fortified as any British naval base in the Mediterranean, are a very real threat to the empire trade route to India and Australia.

Chief factor on which war in the Mediterranean hinges is the decision of one man as to whether it is better to clash now with the British, while they are still unprepared, or wait till later.

That one man is the never predictable Benito Mussolini.

KENTUCKY GENTLEMAN
New York's brilliant, conceited surgeon-congressman, William I. Stroh, had just concluded an address on the supreme court in which he referred to the late Justice Samuel F. Miller, of Kentucky.

Kentucky's Congressman John M. Robison immediately rose to extol Miller, a native of Robison's town of Barbourville. Whereupon Stroh, speaking without notes, produced this:

"I am reminded that all great events have responded to the mystic number 3. The ancient Brahmins had three gods, Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva. The Hebrew patriarchs were Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The Egyptian deities were Osiris, Isis and Horus. Christianity has Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Masonry has King Solomon, Hiram, King of Tyre; and Hiram Abif."

"And Kentucky has produced three great men that I love: Abraham Lincoln, Dr. Samuel F. Miller, and the distinguished gentleman from Kentucky (Mr. Robison)."

WARRING APOSTLES
Dr. Frances Townsend's fusillade against the President's court bill certainly has kicked over the apple cart in the old age movement.

Captain Delbert Brunton, Townsend's hand-picked Washington representative, has resigned in disgust. Gilmore Young, able national secretary, is threatening to quit. Congressional supporters caustically have told the good doctor to hold his tongue. And in the current issue of The Townsend National Weekly, Editor J. W. Brinton gives his boss a snappy word-lashing.

"Last Nov. 16," he reminds his readers, "Dr. Townsend said: 'I hope all Townsendites will join me in declaring their loyalty to the President for the coming four years.' . . . Now the good doctor is not following his advice."

"Dr. Townsend should realize that people still do some of their worst thinking that you can lead them but not drive them."

The man reputed to have sold Townsend his supreme court strategy is Blair Coan, one-time henchman of the notorious Attorney General "Dix" Daugherty, now close adviser of the "good doctor." A showdown over Coan is expected at the annual convention in Washington July 21-25.

Whether the dissenters can oust Coan and force Townsend to relinquish his one-man rule remains to be seen. But whatever happens, a merry battle is coming, and its outcome may determine the fate of the movement.

If Townsend wins and Coan stays, a big split-up is certain.

What Other Editors Say

DRUNK DRIVING

(Orange Daily News)

Justice Ward Rush of Tulare, who so consistently penalized drunken drivers the limit of the law, takes a fling at his week-kneed colleagues who dismiss charges against intoxicated motorists with petty fines, says the Hanford Sentinel.

"To fine a drunk driver $50 and permit him to pay the fine on the installment plan is to flout the law," Judge Rush says, in effect. And he is right.

In the first place such a fine is incommensurate with the damage done by the drunk driver. It is taken out of the penalty class and put into the class of privilege.

The Tulare justice assumes that every drunken driver, male or female, is a potential killer and as such is entitled to all the punishment the law can deal out. Furthermore, he has the courage to carry his convictions to their logical conclusions, hence his program of heavy fines and invariable jail sentences.

It is logical to conclude that if all justices of the peace in California followed Rush's program to the letter there would be less drunken driving, fewer deaths in traffic.

Bright Moments

Thomas Corwin, the great American statesman, friend of Henry Clay, was thrust into the political picture just at the height of the anti-slavery movement. Of very dark complexion, Corwin was often the butt of jokes regarding the Negro race. His dark skin once caused him to say: "There is no need of actually extinguishing a fire for the benefit of the tots."

The children of Henry Meyers, who lives near Fairview, had a narrow escape from serious injuries yesterday forenoon when a Huntington Beach electric car struck their auto as it was being driven across the tracks at Borchard station. One of the boys was driving the machine.

Joseph Chamberlain, prime minister of England who died in 1914, was one of the most determined men in all the British Isles. His philosophy of government was good, and he was a shrewd judge of men. One day an acquaintance asked him how he happened to get through so much legislation that he wanted passed. He answered: "On every committee of 13 there are 12 men who go to the meetings having no thought of the subject, and prepared to accept someone else's lead. One goes there having made up his mind what shall be done. I always make it my business to be that one."

Skinny Skribbles

Around and About Town

With C. F. SKIRVIN

In a case like this what would you do? Auto driver at boulevard stop occupies the middle of the pedestrian lane. That makes it necessary for you to either remain status quo, go in front or the rear of the car if you prefer to continue your motivation across the street. If you go in front of the car the driver might take a sudden notion to go ahead and if you pass back of the car another driver from another direction may hit you. Oh, well, you shouldn't be a pedestrian in the first place.

What I would like to find out is when do the taxpayers get a vacation?

The hog ranch dispute reminds me of an experience a friend of mine had in a hog investment. He bought a pedigreed Hampshire sire arranged with a farmer to take care of it. What do I think about parking meters? And what I think about it won't make any difference, but it has occurred to me if the merchants and the clerks keep their cars off the downtown business streets, the patrolmen hit the overparking boys more and more, it might help some.
